

Zwesper-Charles Henry Hall House, 127 Mountain Road, Epsom, NH

The home of Charles Henry Hall was built by Charles Hall about 1852, after being raised on Center Hill near the McClary Cemetery. He gathered additional adjoining land to complete his farm, and here raised his family having married Lucy Langley in 1852. Around 1857 he bought an additional house further up Mountain Road and moved his father into that residence. His son Hollis married Mabel Sanders in 1891, and he built a home next to his father.
