Epsom, Aug. 18, 1926

The officers of the Old Home Week Association met for a business meeting in Odd Fellows Hall at 8 P.M. to consider what should be done for the observance of Old Home Day.

After considering the fact that no funds had been available for this purpose for 1926 and that elaborate preparations were being made by the town officials to celebrate in 1927 the 200th Anniversary, it was voted unwise to try to arrange any public observance of the day for this year but to lend every possible aid to the success of next years great celebration. Meeting adjourned at 8:50 P.M. subject to call of the President.

Margaret D. Haynes, Secretary

August 6, 1928

An adjourned meeting called by Secretary was held at home of Mary E.Q. Philbrick, President who called meeting to order, when the matter of having music on Old Home Day was discussed. As some of those present rather favored hiring the Barnstead Band while others in favor of George's Union Cornet Band of Suncook, the Secretary who was to attend a concert by the Barnstead Band at Pittsfield on Friday eve, the 10th, was appointed a committee to see what arrangements could be made to procure said Band and report later.

Voted to adjourn.

Margaret D. Haynes, Secretary.

Aug. 13, 1928

An adjourned meeting of Executive Board was held this afternoon at home of Mrs. Chloe M. Atwood. Secretary reported she had attended concert given by Barnstead Band, consulted the leader who said band would come to Epsom Old Home Day for $60.00 and dinners for men, 20 or 25 of them. She also reported that previous to coming to this meeting she had gone to Suncook and consulted over phone, George F. George, who said his band would come after dinner on Old Home Day for $60.00. After much discussion as to how we could pay $60.00, it was finally decided that Secretary see Mr. George and hire his band, which she did immediately after close of this meeting.

As Mr. George had awakened from his nap of early afternoon, Mrs. Haynes was able to see him in person and made arrangements for his band at a cost of $45.00 which fact she reported to President upon her return from Suncook.

Sunday Service Committee reported all arrangements made for Sunday Aug. 19 at 6 P.M.

Meeting adjourned.

Margaret D. Haynes, Secretary.

Sunday Aug. 19, 1928

At 6 P.M. at the close of a most beautiful day, a large gathering of people from near and far gathered together on the lawn of the Center School house to behold a beautiful sunset as was ever man's privilege to witness and to conduct in a wonderful manner a beautiful and impressive Praise Service consisting of an eloquent address by Rev. John Mason of Epsom and Needham Heights, Mass. Remarks by Rev. J.P. West, community and quartet singing. All left for home feeling that it truly was the ending of a perfect day.

Old Home Day

Wednesday Aug. 22, 1929 (1928)

Upwards of 300 people gathered at Webster Park to enjoy together sports by children, to partake of a basket lunch, listen to the music of George's Union Cornet Band and later to witness a most thrilling baseball game between Epsom married and single men which resulted in a score in favor of [not given]. The sale of Ice Cream and Tonic netted the sum of $5.88.
