DECLARATION.

In order to obtain the benefit of the Act of Congress of the 7th of June, 1832.

State of New-Hampshire, } County of Merrimack }

On this Fifth day of September personally appeared before the Judges of the Superior Court of said State & County David How a resident of Epsom in the County of Merrimack and State of New-Hampshire, aged Seventy years, who being first duly sworn, according to law, doth on his oath make the following declaration, in order to obtain the benefit of the provision made by the act of Congress, passed June 7th, 1832. That he enlisted in the army of the United States in the Spring of the year 1779 with and served in the line, under the following named officers: Capt Putnam that is to say, that he the said David How, enlisted (when he was quite young) as he believes in the Spring of 1779, in the Army of the United States in the wars of the Revolution, at Ipswich in the County of Essex & Commonwealth of Massachusetts, where he then lived, in the company, company, commanded by Capt. Putnam, and in the Regiment commanded by Col. Wood, and the name of the Lieut. Colonel of said Regiment was also he thinks Putnam. That after enlisting he the said David How went to Rhode Island, where he served six months under said enlistment and was honorably discharged. That he afterwards, enlisted into said Army of the United States, at Ipswich aforesaid where his home then was, in the Spring (as he believes) of 1780, in the company commanded by Capt. Francis, and in the Regiment commanded by Col. Tupper, and marched to the Jerseys (meaning New-Jersey) where he served six or eight months, (he cannot now positively remember which) and after said service was honorably discharged. But his discharges have long since been utterly lost, or destroyed. And the said David further declares & says that he served under both said enlistments in the said Army of the United States according to the best of his remembrance fourteen months, but is positive that he served in said Army, at least one whole year. And the said and the name of the said Colonel of said Regiment was also he thinks Putnam. That after enlisting he the said David How went to Rhode Island, where he served six months under said enlistment and was honorably discharged. That he afterwards enlisted into said army of the United States, at Ipswich aforesaid where his home then was in the Spring (as he believes) of 1780, in the Company commanded by Capt. Francis, and in the Regiment commanded by Col.

 Tupper, and marched to the Jerseys (meaning New Jersey) where he served six or eight months, (he cannot now positively remember which) and after said service was honorably discharged.
 But his discharges have long since been utterly lost, or destrayed. And the said David further declares & says that he served under both said enlistments in the said army of the United States according to the best of his remembrance fourteen months, but is positive that he served in said army at least one whole year. And the said David How further declares that he was born in Ipswich aforesaid in said Massachusetts, where he lived until he enlisted in the said service of the U. S. and after he both said services he removed from said Ipswich to said Ephraim in the State of New Hampshire where he has since ever resided.

He hereby relinquishes every claim whatever to a pension or an annuity, except the present, and declares that his name is not on the Pension Roll of any agency in any State. David How Sworn to and subscribed the day and year aforesaid.

And the said Court do hereby declare their opinion, that the above named applicant was a revolutionary soldier, and served as he states.

I Moses Eastman Clerk of the Superior Court of the County of Albany do hereby certify that the foregoing contains the original proceedings of the said Court, in the matter of the application of David How for a pension.

In testimony whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal of office, this
