as a private in the Company commanded by Capt.
Woodman. one Rendell was his Lieutenant and one Woodman. son of the Captain was a Sergeant in said Company their Christian names I do not in said Regiment. He lived at the time of his enlistment in Epsom in the county of Merrimack in said State - from whence soon after his en-thence through Keen, Otter Creek and Shims borough to Fort Ann - thence to Castleton N.Y. where they were stationed the most of the remaining time of said period of his enlistment and from thence were frequently ordered out on scouting parties. He served out the period of his enlistment was discharged and returned to D.

Epsom in December 1777 as he believes the last of said month as he well recollects the ground was covered with snow and frozen up. He has no documentary evidence in support of his claim.
He refers to the Affidavit of Joseph Moulton here-unto annexed as evidence of his services and he knows of no other person now living who served with him.

I enlisted for the term of six months and served out said term under the following named officers, viz. I enlisted into the company commanded by Captain Woodman his Christian name I believe was Joshua; one Pendell was Lieutenant in the same company; Colonel Runkle commanded the regiment to which we were attached. soon after my enlistment I was marched from said Epsom to No. 4 now Charleston where we were stationed a short time and then were marched through New N. H. and Otter Creek & Shrewsbury nearly to Saratoga - we were then on orders marched to Castleton N. H. where and in the vicinity of the last named place I served out the period of my enlistment - often collected out on scouting parties and was at said Castleton when the news arrived of the surrender of Burgoyne.

At the period of my enlistment I was well acquainted with Samuel Moulton then of said Epsom now of Compton in said county of Grafton he was an older brother of mine and enlisted at the same time that I did & into the same company and marched with me & served the whole time in the same company & under the same above named officers. I was discharged a few days before the said Samuel Moulton was and returned to said Epson and soon after he the said Samuel returned out of the service to said Epson which to my best recollection was the last of December 1777. I was well knowing to his the said Samuel's serving out the full period of his enlistment which does six months and was a neighbor with him all the while I was in the service
