PREFACE.

I have had three principal objects in view in the preparation of this book :

1st. To make a complete and reliable genealogical record of Elisha¹ Piper and his descendants, with portions of other related families. To effect this object, much correspondence has been held, and many early records searched, at considerable expense. In the genealogies of our early ancestors, some dates could not be found, as the family records have been lost or have not been made, and when stones have been erected to their memories, only the date of their death and their age in years have generally been inscribed upon them, and therefore the exact time of their birth could not be ascertained, although it is as essential as the date of their death. This fact suggests the importance of giving the exact date of the birth and of the death. The age in years should also be stated, to save the person who reads the inscription the trouble of calculating it mentally. The surname of the wife before marriage, as well as the Christian name, should also be given, since it is often as important, in tracing families, to know the name of the wife as that of the husband. I have also had in view the importance of making a record which would be likely to be preserved. When genealogical records are made of individual families only, and recorded on a single sheet or in a single book, they are frequently lost, or destroyed by fire or other accident, in a few years, rendering it very difficult, and often impossible to replace them ; but if they have been collected and printed in a book, and many copies distributed among various persons, or deposited in libraries, it is not probable that they would all be lost for many years—perhaps for centuries.

2d. To give a history of the family. It is a moral and religious duty which we owe to our friends to become acquainted with those living, and to preserve in our memories the names of those who have departed, that they may not be forgotten, or be lost to future generations by long lapse of time. With this view I have collected all the history of the family which I have been able to obtain, and given it principally in the remarks which I have made concerning the persons whose genealogies I have recorded. I cannot trace the family, with certainty, beyond Nathaniel¹ Piper, our English ancestor in this country, whose genealogy and history are given on page 11. I have thought, however, that it might be interesting, and perhaps throw some light on our ancestral origin, if I should give some facts relating to the Pipers in England. The name of Piper is quite common in that country. Burke, in his "General Armory of England, Scotland, Ireland and Wales," mentions, in the last edition (1878), seven families of that name, residing in different counties, which have been permitted, by the Sovereign of Great Britain, to bear a coat of arms. The family with which we are especially interested resides in Devonshire, from which county Nathaniel¹ Piper emigrated to this country. It is called the Culliton House, or family, from the town of Culliton in which the estate is located, being a few miles east of Exeter. The estate was purchased of Sir John De la Pole, baronet of Shute, by John Piper, Esq. The family traces its lineage from Magnus Piper, of Neustadt, in Holstein, formerly a part of Saxony, whose ancestors were from Lubeck. The coat of arms borne by the Culliton family is described by Burke as follows: "Quarterly, embattled gold and ermine, over all an eagle displayed sable, quartering azure, two chevrons gold." The motto is, Feroci fortior, or, More brave than fierce.

John Piper, Esq., was born in 1740, and was a Captain in the 6th Regiment of Infantry. He was destined at an early age for the military profession, and sent to Berlin where he completed a scientific and military course of study. In 1757 he entered the army, and fought in the battle of Minden in Prussia, where he was wounded through both legs. He afterward served in the West Indies, participating in the capture of Martinique. He also served in America, to which he came in the 25th Regiment, in 1769, and was appointed to the staff. While in this country, he married Frances Ayrault, second daughter and co-heiress of Stephen Ayrault, Esq., of Newport, Rhode Island, the only remaining representative of a distinguished and opulent Huguenot family. He returned from this country to England with his wife in 1782, and retired from military life in 1788, to the Culliton estate, where he lived with his family till his death in 1802.

He had by his wife, Frances, three sons: 1st, John Piper, born in 1783. He was knighted with the title of C. B., and was Colonel of the 4th or King's Own Regiment of Infantry. He served in Canada, Holland, Denmark, Flanders, Spain, Portugal, France, and the West Indies; and finally fell a sacrifice to the pernicious effects of climate, in 1821, in the thirty-eighth year of his age, his death being hastened by exhaustion from the last and almost mortal wound which he received in the vertebrae of the neck, in the neighborhood of Bayonne, in Nov., 1813. 2d, Samuel Ayrault Piper, born in 1787. He was Surgeon of the 30th Regiment of his Majesty's troops. 3d, Robert Sloper Piper, born in 1790. He was Major of the Corps of Royal Engineers, and served in six campaigns under the Duke of Wellington, in Spain, France, and Flanders. He was also Commanding Engineer in the Canadian Province during the insurrection in 1817 and 1818. He retired on full pay, as Lieut. Colonel.*

I have not been able to ascertain whether Nathaniel¹ Piper is related to this family or not, but the fact that it resides in the same county from which he emigrated to this country, and that the names, John and Samuel, are found in both families, and have been retained as favorite names in a large number of the families of the descendants of Nathaniel¹ Piper, renders it possible that both families are descended from the same common ancestor, Magnus Piper of Holstein. There is no doubt, however, that both are of Saxon or Anglo-Saxon origin.

3d. To call the attention of the family to the importance of striving to elevate it to a higher degree of usefulness and distinction. It has doubtless accomplished as much as most families, but a higher degree of excellence is needed than it has yet attained. This must be accomplished principally by education. It is true that children generally inherit the intellectual qualities of their parents, and those children are fortunate whose parents possess superior minds; but the subject of heredity, although it is important and should not be overlooked, is not so fully under our control as that of education. The idea of the importance of a good education should be impressed on the minds of the young at an early age. It is one of the first duties of parents to educate their children. They should be ambitious to make them intelligent and useful. No parents should be satisfied with giving their children less education than would fit them to teach a common school, whatever occupation they are expected to pursue: and all should endeavor to give some of them the best which the institutions of their State or country afford. Their moral faculties, as well as their intellectual, should be developed by a thorough moral and religious training. They should feel that their duties as parents have not been fully discharged until they have done all this. It is believed by intellectual philosophers that mental development acquired by education is, in some degree, transmitted to the offspring; and, if this is so, as I have no doubt it is, there will be a constant intellectual growth of the family in succeeding generations to an extent that cannot now be known.

The record of the genealogy of Elisha⁴ Piper and his descendants ends when neither of the parents of the children has the name of Piper, for in that case, having no immediate ancestors of that name, they would belong wholly to another family. I have, however, given the genealogy of a few children of this class in notes at the bottom of the pages, whose names were sent to me with the expectation that they would be included. In the Appendix I have given the genealogy of Asa⁴ Piper, of Wakefield, N. H.; of Solomon⁵ Piper, of Boston, Mass.; and of Stephen⁵ Piper, of Newfield, Me., and their immediate descendants, but have extended them no farther, as to have done so would have required more time than I could possibly devote to them.

Much time and labor have been expended in collecting the genealogies of the various families, and had I not been assisted by others, it would have been almost impossible for me to have obtained all of them. While I am grateful to all who have assisted me, my thanks are especially due to William T.⁶ Piper, of Cambridge, Mass., son of Solomon⁵ Piper, of Boston, who has searched early records, and furnished me much information never before published, and also given me the use of his father's "Genealogy of the Family of Solomon⁴ Piper, of Dublin, N. H.," from which I have copied freely; to Hiram H.⁷ Piper, of Malden, Ill., who has furnished me the genealogies of a large number of the Pipers in that State; to George F.⁸

Piper for the genealogy of the descendants of Asa⁴ Piper, of Wakefield, N. H.; to Lewis L.⁸ Piper for the genealogy of those of Stephen⁵ Piper, of Newfield, Me.; to Noah P.⁷ Young, of Stratham, N. H., who has searched the records of Stratham, visited neighboring towns for information, and furnished me the genealogies of several of the Piper families of that town; to Miss Harriet C. Brown, of Cincinnati, Ohio, for the history and genealogy of the Moffatt families and of the family of her father; and to Mrs. Mary Thaxter⁷ (Jemegan) McGill for the genealogy and history of David⁵ Piper, her grandfather, and of several other families of his descendants, besides her own family. All the genealogical records given in this book have been brought down from 1630 to the present time, 1889, embracing a period of more than two hundred and fifty years.

EXPLANATIONS.

The numbers on the left of the page are the serial numbers of the persons whose genealogies are given in the book ; those in Roman letters are the numbers of the children in each family ; those in parenthesis refer back to the same serial numbers on the left, where the genealogies of the parents are given ; those following, "See their children," refer forward to the same serial numbers on the left, where the genealogies of the children are given : the small elevated figure at the right of the Christian name denotes the generation of the person from his English ancestor, Nathaniel¹ Piper, who is the first generation of the family in this country ; when nothing is said of the death of a person, the person is now (1889) living ; when nothing of the marriage, the person has not been married. This rule in regard to marriage has been observed, except in a few cases of our early ancestors, where it could not be known whether they were married or not, and in some few of the notes at the bottom of the pages.

GENEALOGY OF ELISHA⁴ PIPER, OF PARSONSFIELD, ME., AND HIS DESCENDANTS.

FIRST GENERATION.

I. NATHANIEL¹ PIPER, ancestor of Elisha⁴ Piper, and so far as I have been able to ascertain, of nearly all the Pipers in this country, was born in England, probably about 1630. He emigrated from Dartmouth, in Devonshire, and settled in Ipswich, Mass., as a farmer. James Savage, in his Genealogical Dictionary, represents him as being here in 1665. Solomon³ Piper, author of the Genealogy of the Family of Solomon⁴ Piper, says: "He drew a share and a half in Plum Island in 1665, and was an early inhabitant of Ipswich, Mass." Rev. Asa⁴ Piper, of Wakefield, N. H., in his genealogical record, says: "He emigrated from England to this country during the Revolution in the days of Charles the First," under Oliver Cromwell, which could not have been later than 1658. William T.⁶ Piper, in a recent search of the Ipswich records, now in the Essex County Registry of Deeds, finds, Book II, p. 251, a deed of marsh land on Jaffrey's Neck, Ipswich, from Andrew Hodges to Nathaniel¹ Piper, dated March 18, 1662. Also, in the Suffolk County Registry of Deeds, Book I, p. 330, a deed from Martyn Stebens, of Boston, Mass., to Wm. Bartholomew, of Ipswich, dated Dec. 15, 1653, and witnessed by Nathaniel¹ Piper, which seems to prove conclusively that he came to this country as early as Dec. 15, 1653. He married Sarah* —, and died in 1676, in Ipswich. His will, a copy of which is given in this book, and recorded in the Ipswich records, is dated March 7, 1675, and was proved, Sept. 26, 1676. After his decease his wife married Ezekiel Woodward, of Wenham, Mass., a carpenter. She was living in Wenham in 1696, and probably died there, but no record of the time of her death can be found. Her second husband, Ezekiel Woodward, died Jan. 29, 1698, in Wenham.—SEE THEIR CHILDREN: NOS. 2. 3. 4. 5. 6. 7. 8. 9. 10. 11. 12.

* It is probable that he married his wife in this country, where all his children were born.

SECOND GENERATION.

(1.) Nathaniel¹ Piper married Sarah —.

THEIR CHILDREN :

2. i. SARAH² PIPER (Nathaniel¹), born about 1656 in Ipswich, Mass.; was living in 1675, being under twenty-one years of age; died.

3. ii. NATHANIEL² PIPER (Nathaniel¹), born June 25, 1658, in Ipswich; died probably about 1689, in Ipswich. The children, with the consent of their mother Sarah, sold the homestead of their father to John Wainright, of Ipswich, the deed being dated June 18, 1690, and signed by John² Piper, Thomas² Piper, Mary² Piper, and Tristram Greenleaf, who married Margaret² Piper. Nathaniel² Piper does not appear as a signer of the deed, nor does his name appear in it, although his father had given him by will a part of his property. It would seem, therefore, that he had died before the farm was sold. Rev. Asa⁴ Piper speaks of three sons of Nathaniel¹ Piper, namely, Nathaniel², Thomas², and Samuel². He says: "Two of them went to Stratham, N. H., and the other I believe died young." Nathaniel² may be the one who died young, that is, a young man.

4. iii. MARY² PIPER (Nathaniel¹), born Nov. 5, 1660, in Ipswich; died Feb. 18, 1661, in Ipswich.

5. iv. JOSIAH² PIPER (Nathaniel¹), born Dec. 18, 1661, in Ipswich; was living in 1675; died.

6. v. JOHN² PIPER* (Nathaniel¹) born in 1663 in Ipswich; married Lydia —; died probably in Wenham, Mass. She died probably in Wenham.

7. vi. MARY² PIPER (Nathaniel¹), born Dec. 15, 1664, in Ipswich; was living in 1690; died.

8. vii. THOMAS² PIPER† (Nathaniel¹), born Nov. 25, 1666, in Ipswich; married Grace Hawley, of Wenham, Nov. 21, 1692; died perhaps in Stratham, N. H., and his wife in the same place. It is not certainly known whether he went to Stratham or not; his son Thomas³ went there.

9. viii. MARGARET² PIPER (Nathaniel¹), born June 16, 1668, in Ipswich; married Tristram Greenleaf Nov. 12, 1689; died; he died.

10. ix. SAMUEL² PIPER (Nathaniel¹), grandfather of Elisha⁴ Piper, born June 12, 1670, in Ipswich; married Abigail Church,* April 23, 1694; died Oct. 31, 1747, in Stratham, N. H., to which place he removed probably a short time before the incorporation of the town. She died in Stratham. He last appears on the town records of Stratham, as a voter, in 1746. He was one of the signers of a petition, in 1715, to incorporate the town of Stratham, which was incorporated in 1716. He held several offices in town, as sealer of leather, surveyor of highways, and constable.—SEE THEIR CHILDREN: NOS. 13, 14, 15, 16.

11. x. JONATHAN² PIPER† (Nathaniel¹), born in Ipswich, probably in 1672; a farmer; married, 1st, Sarah Leach, of Boxford, Mass., May 7, 1695. She died May 6, 1700, in Ipswich. 2d, Alice Darbey, of Beverly, Mass., published Sept. 21, 1700; certificate granted Oct. 9, 1700. He died May 11, 1752, in Concord, Mass., to which place he removed from Ipswich in 1731. She died April 23, 1758, in Concord.

12. xi. WILLIAM² PIPER‡ (Nathaniel¹), born in Ipswich; died June 18, 1674, in Ipswich.

THIRD GENERATION.

(10.) Samuel² Piper married Abigail Church.

THEIR CHILDREN:

13. i. SAMUEL³ PIPER (Samuel², Nathaniel¹), father of Elisha⁴ Piper, born according to the latest information obtained, probably in Ipswich, Mass., in 1701. He was baptized in Wenham in 1701, but some families living in the part of Ipswich near Wenham † Jonathan² had nine children: 1. Samuel³; 2. Jonathan³; 3. Nathaniel³; 4. Josiah³; 5. John³; 6. Alice³; 7. Sarah³; 8. Mary³; 9. Joseph³. Joseph³ was grandfather of Solomon⁵ Piper, late of Boston, Mass. See "Genealogy of Solomon³ Piper, of Boston, Mass., and his Immediate Descendants," Nos. 13, 14, 15, 16, 17, 18, 19, 20, 21.

attended church in the latter place, as it was nearer than the church in Ipswich. He married Jane Cate, and lived in Stratham, N. H., as a farmer the most of his life, or till 1785, when he removed with his youngest son Samuel⁴ to Loudon, N. H. He held some town offices in Stratham, as surveyor of highways, constable, &c. He died in Loudon about 1788. No record of the exact date of his death can be found. The one given does not vary much from the true one. His wife died in Stratham. The record of his baptism is found in the Wenham records.—SEE THEIR CHILDREN: Nos. 17, 18, 19, 20.

14. ii. JOHN³ PIPER* (Samuel², Nathaniel¹), born about 1703, in 1691; in Ipswich; married Jane Haines, daughter of Samuel Haines, of Greenland, N. H., Dec., 1729. She died March 20, 1741, in Stratham, N. H. He died Nov. 4, 1742, in Stratham, being drowned in the Great Bay.

15. iii. ABIGAIL³ PIPER (Samuel², Nathaniel¹), born about 1705, probably in Ipswich; died.

* John³ Piper has the names of three children recorded: 1. John⁴, baptized in 1736, in Greenland, N. H.; married, had a family, and died in Stratham, N. H. 2. Samuel⁴, born June 21, 1739, in Stratham, died about 1829, in Stratham. 3. An infant child⁴, born in Stratham; died March 16, 1741, in Stratham. The statement concerning John³ Piper and his wife, and first and third child may be found in the "New England Historical and Genealogical Register," Vol. XXII, p. 431; concerning the second, in the Stratham records.

Richard Upton⁶ Piper, M. D., is a descendant of John³ Piper, as follows: Richard Upton⁶, born April 3, 1818, in Stratham, N. H. Samuel⁵, born Feb. 22, 1785, in Stratham; died about 1860, in Exeter, N. H. Samuel⁴, born June 21, 1739, in Stratham; died about 1829, in Stratham. John³, born and died as stated above in No. 14. Samuel², born June 12, 1679, in Ipswich, Mass.; died Oct. 31, 1747, in Stratham. Nathaniel¹, born about 1630, in England; died in 1676, in Ipswich. He graduated from the Medical Department of Dartmouth College in 1840; married Elizabeth Frances Folsom, daughter of Nathan Boardman and Sarah (Quincy) Folsom, Nov. 9, 1843. born March 7, 1819, in Portsmouth, N. H. He practiced medicine in Woburn, Mass., several years, and also in Chicago. III. He is an author, and published, in 1852, "Operative Surgery," 8vo., 278 pages, illustrated with about two thousand engravings, made by himself; in 1855, an edition of "Macleice's Surgical Anatomy," 4to., illustrated with plates of his own engraving; in 1857, "The Trees of America," with illustrations; and has also contributed articles to the "New Orleans Medical Journal" and other scientific publications. He has given much attention to the study of microscopy, and is an expert in that science, being often called to make microscopic examinations in cases in courts

16. iv. SARAH² PIPER* (Samuel², Nathaniel¹), born about 1707, probably in Ipswich; married Capt. Thomas Wiggin. Both probably died in Stratham.

FOURTH GENERATION.

(13.) Samuel³ Piper married Jane Cate.

THEIR CHILDREN:

17. i. JONATHAN⁴ PIPER (Samuel³, Samuel², Nathaniel¹), born July 31, 1742, in Stratham N. H.; a farmer; married Olive Light, of Exeter, N. H., born April 12, 1752; died in Stratham. She died in Stratham.—SEE THEIR CHILDREN: NOS. 21, 22, 23, 24, 25, 26, 27, 28, 29, 30, 31, 32, 33, 34.

18. ii. SAMUEL⁴ PIPER (Samuel³, Samuel², Nathaniel¹), born Sept. 24, 1753, in Stratham; married Sally Norris Feb. 15, 1781, of justice and elsewhere, on which he has made many reports. He has several thousand drawings of various objects, made under the microscope and admirably executed, which have not yet been bound in book form, and issued to the public. A writer in the "North American Review," in a notice of his works, says: "He has the eye of an artist, the hand of a draftsman, and the spirit of an enthusiast." He resides in Washington, D. C. Stephen Howard⁶ Piper, a successful merchant of Exeter, N. H., born August, 1814, in Stratham, is a descendant of the same ancestors as Richard Upton⁶, being his brother.

Samuel⁴ Piper, before mentioned, grandfather of Richard Upton⁶, is a first cousin of Elisha⁴ Piper, of Parsonsfield, Me. (See p. 16, No. 20). He married Mary Robinson, June, 1762, born Aug. 1, 1744; she died in Stratham. His children, as recorded in the Stratham records, are: 1. Mary⁵, born May 19, 1763; died April 16, 1766. 2. Jane⁵, born April 9, 1765. 3. John⁵, born July 16, 1767. 4. Mehitable⁵, born Nov. 15, 1769. 5. Mary⁵, born Feb. 23, 1772; died Sept. 29, 1774. 6. Noah Robinson⁵, born Feb. 2, 1777; died Sept. 16, 1778. 7. Nancy⁵, born May 3, 1779. 8. Sally⁵, born Aug. 6, 1782; died Nov. 14, 1783. 9. Samuel⁵, born Feb. 22, 1785. 10. Sally⁵, born Jan. 25, 1788. All were born in Stratham. None are living.

Samuel⁵ Piper, father of Richard Upton⁶, married Mary Folsom, and resided in Stratham most of his life, but removed to Exeter a few years before his death. His wife died in Exeter several years after his decease. His children are: 1. Stephen Howard⁶. 2. Richard Upton⁶. 3. Samuel Folsom⁶. 4. A son⁶, died in infancy. 5. Simeon Francis⁶. 6. Mary Boardman⁶. 7. Hannah Robinson⁶. 8. Sarah Folsom⁶. 9. Victoria Anna⁶. 10. Caroline Elizabeth⁶. All were born in Stratham. There are now living, Stephen Howard⁶, Richard Upton⁶, Samuel Folsom⁶, Simeon Francis⁶, and Victoria Anna⁶.

* They had one child at least, named Abigail Church Wiggin⁴, born Aug. 29, 1737, and married Stephen⁴ Piper, June 20, 1754.—See "Genealogy of Stephen⁵ Piper, of Newfield, Me., and his Immediate Descendants," No. 16.

born May 28, 1756, in Stratham. Soon after his marriage he sold the homestead farm in Stratham, and removed with his father to Loudon, N. H. He was there a hotel keeper, town clerk, and selectman eight years, from 1787 to 1794. He died about 1813, in Loudon. She died May 3, 1843, in Loudon.—SEE THEIR CHILDREN: NOS. 35, 36, 37, 38, 39, 40, 41, 42, 43.

19. iii. COMFORT¹ PIPER* (Samuel³, Samuel², Nathaniel¹), born July 10, 1756, in Stratham N. H.; married Joseph Norris in 1774. born Jan. 31, 1753, in Stratham; died in Stratham. He died in the same place.—SEE THEIR CHILDREN: NOS. 44, 45, 46, 47, 48, 49, 50, 51, 52.

20. iv. ELISHA¹ PIPER† (Samuel³, Samuel², Nathaniel¹), born June 17, 1746, in Stratham; married, 1st, Sarah Barker, daughter of Ebenezer Barker†, of Stratham, born in 1748, in Stratham; died Nov. 13, 1798, in Parsonsfield, Me., aged 50 years; 2d, Olive Dyer,

* There were six other daughters, but I have not been able to learn the order of their ages, nor anything about their genealogies, and little of their history. Abigail⁴ married ——— Robinson; Rachel⁴ is supposed to have married Jeremiah Avery, who once lived in Parsonsfield, Me., in the south-west part of the town, on lot No. 41; Jane⁴ married ——— Pottle; one, name unknown, married ——— Merrill; Betsey⁴ never married. I do not know the name of the other, nor whom she married.

† Elisha¹ Piper, in the order of age, would follow next after Jonathan¹, but in order to bring all his descendants together, I have introduced him here.

‡ Ebenezer Barker lived and died in Stratham.—HIS CHILDREN:

1. Nathaniel, born in Stratham, N. H.; settled in Enfield, N. H.
2. Nosh, born in Stratham; settled in Cornish, Me., in 1784.—CHILDREN: 1. Noah, married Sally Clark. 2. Thomas, married Sally Ayer. 3. Enoch, married Sally Jewett, and was a member of Massachusetts Legislature before Maine was separated from that State. 4. Humphrey, married Sally Hodgdon. All are dead.

3. Ebenezer, born Aug. 21, 1758, in Stratham; married widow Hannah Brashee (maiden name, Burleigh); settled in Cornish, in 1784.—CHILDREN: 1. Nancy Clark, born Oct. 1, 1794; married Mark Pease as his first wife; died Jan. 29, 1822. 8. Olive, born Sept. 5, 1797; died Dec. 30, 1855. 9. Cyrus Snell, born May 26, 1800; married Nancy Thurston Smith. He furnished me this genealogical record of the Barker daughter of Thomas and Elizabeth (Melcher) Dyer,* of Biddeford, Me., born in 1758, in Biddeford; died April 20, 1808, in Parsonsfield, aged 50 years; 3d, Rosannah Dyer, daughter of Thomas and Elizabeth (Melcher) Dyer, of Biddeford, Oct. 1, 1808, born July 15, 1767, in Biddeford; died April 23, 1839, in Parsonsfield.

After he married his first wife he lived about five years in Stratham, and then purchased a farm in Wakefield, N. H., located not far from Province Pond. He removed there in the spring of 1772, and remained nearly nine years. The farm proving frosty and his prospects for supporting his family on such land being very discouraging, he resolved to sell, and find a home in a more favorable locality. He directed his course to Parsonsfield, then called Parsonstown, in the province of Maine, at that time belonging to Massachusetts.

family about two years before his death, which occurred Aug. 21, 1889, at the age of 89 years. He was a man of high integrity and much respected. All are dead.

4. Simeon, born in 1768, in Stratham; married Hannah Rundlet; settled in Cornish, Me., in 1784, but subsequently removed to Limerick, Me., and died there in 1812.—CHILDREN: 1. Mary, married Daniel Perry. 2. Simeon, born Nov. 14, 1792; deacon of the Congregational Church in Limerick and Senator in the Maine Legislature; married Almira Boardman, of Newburyport, Mass., born Oct. 1, 1800; died Mar. 19, 1884. He died July 15, 1856, in Limerick, where he resided. 3. Hannah, married Warwick Hobbs, of Wells, Me. 4. Sarah, never married. 5. Betsey, married John Jewett. 6. Susan, born May 21, 1802; married George Washington Drake, of Eppingham, N. H. She is now living (1889) in Portsmouth, N. H. 7. Levi, married Olive Storer. He died in Adington, Mass. 8. Charles, born in Limerick; was twice married; died in Fairfield, Me. All, except Susan, are dead.

5. Sarah, married Elisha⁴ Piper, as before stated.—SEE THEIR CHILDREN: Nos. 53, 54, 55, 56, 57, 58, 59, 60, 61, 62.

6. A daughter, born in Stratham; married ——— Wiggin, of Stratham. They died.

7. A daughter, born in Stratham; married ——— Berry, of Meredith, N. H. They died.

8. Hannah, born in Stratham; married Thomas Ayers Johnson, of Cornish, Me.—CHILDREN: 1. Sarah, married Capt. James Wedgwood, of Parsonsfield, Me. 2. Olive, married Jonathan Garland, of Winslow, Me. 3. William, married Nancy Pike. 4. Augustus, married Mary Hodgdon. He was a member of the Maine Legislature. All, I think, are dead.

The sons of the first Ebenezer Barker are arranged in the order of their ages, and the daughters next in the order of theirs, although some of the daughters are older than some of the sons. He had other children, but their names not being known, they have been omitted.

* Thomas Dyer, who was published to Elizabeth Melcher Nov. 28, 1741.

He first purchased lot No. 25, in the second range, of Benjamin Hilton, of Parsonsfield, for one hundred and twenty-five pounds,* the deed being dated Nov. 5, 1778, and on this lot he settled. He subsequently purchased five other lots,—lot No. 171, in the tenth range, of Alpheus Spring, of Kittery, Me., for five pounds, deed dated Nov. 28, 1785; lot No. 51, in the third range, of John Brown, of Parsonsfield, for five hundred dollars, deed dated May 13, 1790; lot No. 13, in the first range, which was a tax sale, for six shillings and two pence, deed dated June 27, 1791; lot No. 88, in the fifth range, of Chase Wiggin, of Stratham, N. H., for forty-five pounds, deed dated Feb. 15, 1793; lot No. 50, in third range, which I do not find recorded in the County Registry of Deeds, although it is probably there. It now forms a large part of the old homestead.

In June 1779, the next year after his first purchase, he went from Wakefield to Parsonsfield, built him a log camp, covered with hemlock bark, felled several acres of trees, and then returned to his family in Wakefield. In March of the next year, 1780, he went back to Parsonsfield. As there were no roads passable for teams at that season of the year, he hauled his camp furniture, consisting of a bed and some cooking utensils, on a hand-sled, over Ricker's Mountain, on the crust. This was a great hardship, and he was obliged to get some assistance in his passage over the mountain. Before the time arrived for burning the trees, felled the preceding season, he was employed in preparing materials for building a log-house for his family. He burned the trees in May, and planted the ground with lived in Biddeford, Me., at Winter Harbor, on the Pool Road, left hand side when going down, between two and two and a half miles from the Pool, by the road, and about a mile in a straight line. The house is still standing, and is owned by Joseph Edwards. All the vessels going out of Saco River can be seen from the door. He had quite a family. Besides Olive and Rosannah, there were Elizabeth, published to Caleb Locke, of Hollis, Me., Jan. 1, 1762; Miriam, to William Wadlin, of Biddeford, Feb. 20, 1770; Mary, to Phineas Downs, of Hollis, Dec. 4, 1771; Sarah, to Jeremiah Gūpatrick, of Limerick, Me., in 1775; Abigail, to ——— Coburn, of Kennebunk, Me., time unknown; Thomas, an only son, who married, and died by drowning in Saco River, leaving two sons, Thomas and Oliver, and one daughter, Abigail. Capt. Ira C. Doe, of Saco, married a daughter of Thomas, last named. All those mentioned, except the last two, I think are dead. These facts, copied from the Biddeford records, have been kindly furnished me by Stephen Locke, of Biddeford, grandson of Caleb Locke who married Elizabeth Dyer.

*The value of a pound at that time was about three dollars, thirty-three and one third cents.

corn and such other crops as would be needed for the support of his family the next winter. His planting was all completed before the nineteenth of May, which was the famous Dark Day* of 1780, of which I have heard him speak with much earnestness, as being a very wonderful phenomenon. On that day he was helping his neighbor, George Bickford, finish planting his corn. After his crops had been harvested and his log-house completed, he returned to Wakefield to remove his family, consisting of his wife and six small children. He moved with an ox-team on the snow, late in the year 1780—probably in December, as the day is represented as having been bitter cold—the coldest of that winter. The suffering of the little children must have been severe, but such exposures often occur in pioneer life.

He had now settled down in a permanent home, and was about to enter upon a career of prosperity unknown to him before. He was thirty-two years of age when he purchased his farm in 1778, and his wife about two years younger, both being full of energy and hope, and ambitious of success. Farming was a business in which he delighted, and he pursued it successfully and scientifically, although he had never received any instruction in scientific farming. His land was fertile, and free from frost; and his crops were abundant. The log-house was succeeded, in a few years, by a neat one-story frame-house, and finally about 1812 a story was added to this, and the whole neatly finished and painted. It is still standing, and is occupied by his great-grandson, Samuel Fullerton⁷ Piper. The lower story is nearly or quite a hundred years old.

To each of two of his sons he gave a farm, and assisted the others in purchasing farms for themselves. To each of his daughters he gave the usual sum, at that time, of one hundred dollars, as her marriage portion. He always kept money by him, usually not less than one hundred dollars; and sometimes I have known him to have five hundred, derived from the sale of stock and farm products. He did not permit any of his neighbors to be in advance of him in his farm work, or surpass him in their farm products. His farm stock was of the best breeds, and carefully selected; and having a good pasturage, and being fed in winter on hay of the best quality, it was unsurpassed, in size and beauty, by any in the town. It therefore sold for the highest market prices. He kept one hired man through the year, and in the haying season, one additional, and sometimes two, if needed to secure the crop at the best time for cutting it; so that his haying was generally finished by the end of July or the first week in August; and his hay was of the choicest kind. In 1796 he paid the largest tax of any man in the town, and was always among the largest tax-payers.

*The darkness began about ten o'clock in the forenoon, and continued about fourteen hours. It was so great that candles had to be lighted, common print could not be read, fowls retired to their roost, and cattle returned to the barn. Its cause has never been satisfactorily explained. It was not an eclipse. Meteorologists think it was caused by a very dense vapor, charged perhaps with foreign matter. The theory that smoke, in connection with vapor, was the cause has been more favorably received than any other. See an interesting account of it in a work entitled, "Our First Century."

His first wife was a large woman, with dark hair and black eyes. She was the mother of ten children, five sons and five daughters, all of whom lived to be married, and have families; and three of them lived to be over eighty years of age. His other two wives were also large women, and all of them managed their household affairs with economy and ability. In person he was of medium size, quick and active, and of the pure Anglo-Saxon type. He was prompt in all his business transactions and private duties, and never omitted to ask a blessing at the table. To the needy he was kind and benevolent, and none ever went away from his house hungry. He died of old age March 10, 1836, in Parsonfield where he had always lived after leaving Wakefield, N. H. — SEE THEIR CHILDREN: Nos. 53, 54, 55, 56, 57, 58, 59, 60, 61, 62.

I have given it as found in the family record, as I have given the names of the other children. She married James Remick Aug. 30, 1788, born about 1764, in Kittery, Me.; a farmer, blacksmith, and justice of the peace. She died about Feb. 28, 1791, perhaps a few days later, in Parsonsfield, Me., at the birth of her second daughter, at the early age of twenty-four years. His second wife was Anna Haynes, born in 1764, in Waterborough, Me.; died April 8, 1848, in Bangor, Me., where she resided with her step-daughter, Susan (Remick) Clarke. He resided in Parsonsfield on the south side of the North Road, about half way between Blazo's Corner and Limerick Village, on the farm now owned by Samuel Bartlett, being lot No. 171 and nearly opposite the residence of the late Samuel Lougee. He was a large, portly man; died July 31, 1822, in Parsonsfield. I have not been able to ascertain the exact time when he was born or she died, but the time given varies very little from the true dates. 55. iii. DAVID⁵ PIPER (Elisha⁴, Samuel³, Samuel², Nathaniel¹), born Dec. 24, 1771, in Stratham, N. H.; a ship-builder, brick-maker, and farmer; married Nancy Chevers⁴ May 23, 1793, born Sept. 16, 1776, in Salem, Mass. After his marriage he settled in Hampden, Me., and was engaged in ship-building in company with another man, in 1814, when the British, on the third of Sept. of that year, made an attack on the town, pillaged the houses and stores, and burned several vessels which were in course of construction, one of which belonged to him and his partner. After a battle of one hour the British were victorious, and according to "Coolidge and Mansfield's History of New England," carried away to Castine, Me., about eighty of the citizens as prisoners of war, of whom he was one; only fifty-seven appear on the parole. They were, however, soon released on the condition that the selectmen of Hampden should pay one thousand dollars as a ransom; but the war soon closing, and the treaty of peace having been ratified at Washington Feb. 17, 1815, the money was never paid. A copy of the parole of the prisoners is now in the possession of his grand-daughter, Mrs. Mary T.⁷ (Jemegan) McGill, of Amelia, Ohio, who has had the kindness to furnish me a copy†. sioned by the destruction of his vessel, and the complete prostration of business at the close of the war, in connection with the cold years of 1815 and 1816*, caused his financial ruin, and he resolved to emigrate to the West, and try his fortune there. Some time in 1817 he went to Ohio, and settled in New Richmond, Clermont County. After remaining there a year, and making the necessary preparations, his son-in-law, Hiram Harding, in 1818, moved his family and his own, consisting of ten persons in all, to that place, traveling all that long and tedious journey of twelve hundred miles in a wagon covered with canvas, and drawn by two horses. In many places the roads were so soft and muddy that all, except the smallest children, were obliged to walk many a mile on foot. They all, however, arrived safely. He lived in New Richmond about eleven years, or till 1828, and was engaged in farming and brick-making, and made the first bricks ever made in New Richmond. He removed from this place to Cincinnati, and carried on brick-making there for three years, when he purchased a farm at Pleasant Hill, a place about four miles from Amelia, Ohio, and pursued the business of farming about six years, and made considerable money. He then sold this farm, and purchased another in Amelia, to which he removed and continued the business of farming till his death, which occurred

JONA. KNOWLES,) Town of Hampden.

Hampden, Sept. 20, 1814.

*During the summer of 1816 there was a killing frost in Maine every month, which has never happened since. General Chamberlain, in his work, "Maine: Her Place in History," says that in 1815 and 1816 "the State lost fifteen thousand of her most energetic people." This great exodus was sometimes called the Ohio fever.

at that place Dec. 10, 1861, at the age of almost ninety years. His wife died Sept. 27, 1852, in Amelia. He was a man of high integrity, and respected by those who knew him. In person he was tall and erect, being fully six feet in height, and capable of great endurance. He visited his early home in Parsonsfield, in 1826, which was the only time after he went to Ohio. Notwithstanding his reverses he made life a success, and accumulated a good property which, at his death, was equally divided among his children.—SEE THEIR CHILDREN : NOS. 69, 70, 71, 72.

56. iv. SARAH⁵ PIPER (Elisha⁴, Samuel³, Samuel², Nathaniel¹), usually called Sally, born March 17, 1774, in Wakefield, N. H.; married Daniel Felch, son of Abijah Felch*, born September 26, 1771, in Limerick, Me.; a merchant and captain. His store is said to have been the first in that section of the country, or between the two Ossipee Rivers. He pursued the business of trade with great success, and accumulated a large property for a man dying so young. He died Oct. 3, 1806, in Limerick, where he resided. She died Feb. 28, 1808, in the same place, a little more than a year after. By the early death of the parents, the children were scattered, and never again united in one household; but all except one arrived at maturity, married, and had children; and became the most distinguished branch of the Piper family.—SEE THEIR CHILDREN : NOS. 73, 74, 75, 76, 77, 78.

57. v. DANIEL⁵ PIPER (Elisha⁴, (Samuel³, Samuel², Nathaniel¹)), born March 4, 1776, in Wakefield, N. H.; a farmer, selectman, and ensign in the war of 1812; married Anna Parsons Aug. 25, 1799, born May 7, 1783, in Parsonsfield, Me., and daughter of Thomas and Hannah (Foster) Parsons. Thomas Parsons was son of Thomas Parsons, the proprietor of Parsonsfield, from whom the town took its name. The "History of Penobscot County" says: "Mr. Piper came to this county from Parsonsfield in 1799, and settled in Newburgh, being one of the early settlers of the town. He was for many years one of the active men of his town, holding all the prominent town offices, at different times," and was in the battle of Hampden, being ensign under Captain Ichabod Bickford. He was a little above

* Abijah Felch was one of the early proprietors of the land of the township of Limerick, and a prominent man there for many years. He represented the town in the Massachusetts Legislature, in Boston, before Maine was separated from that State in 1820. He also served in the army of the Revolution.

the medium size, of high integrity, and decided in his opinions. In religious belief, he was a Freewill Baptist. He died August 10, 1842, in Newburgh, where he had always lived after his settlement there. His wife died Oct. 5, 1865, in Monroe, Me., where she was living with her son, Simeon Barker⁶ Piper. The date of her death given in the town records of Newburgh is Nov. 1, 1865, but her son says the one here given is correct.—SEE THEIR CHILDREN: Nos. 79, 80, 81, 82, 83, 84, 85, 86, 87, 88, 89, 90.

88. vi. MARY⁵ PIPER (Elisha⁴, Samuel³, Samuel², Nathaniel¹), usually called Polly, born April 14, 1778, in Wakefield, N. H.; married Joseph Moffatt in 1796, born Sept. 4, 1771, in Maine, as is supposed, but it may have been in Mass. He became acquainted with his wife at her father's residence in Parsonsfield, Me., while employed by him on his farm. After his marriage he settled on lot No. 5, in Newburgh, Me., the town then being called Plantation No. 2, where he lived several years, sowed a nursery, and made other improvements. In 1805, he sold his farm to George Bickford, and it is now owned by his son, Isaac Bickford, who is nearly ninety years old*. He remembers the family well, and from him I have obtained a part of the facts here given, and a portion of the remainder from the records of the town of Newburgh. We have no certain knowledge of his location after he sold his farm, till we find him in Canada on a farm near Quebec, where his son, Benjamin Franklin Moffatt, was born Oct. 8, 1815. Mr. Bickford thinks that he resided in Newburgh, or some neighboring town, for several years after he sold his farm. Some of his grandchildren are of opinion that he also lived a short time in some town in Mass., near Boston, before he went to Canada. From Canada he removed to Olean, Cattaraugus County, N. Y., probably about 1817, and in 1818, or the spring of 1819 went to Ohio, and settled on a farm located between Hamilton and Oxford, in Butler County. He made the passage from Olean to Cincinnati, Ohio, with his family, on a raft loaded with lumber, going 300 miles on the Alleghany River to Pittsburgh, Pa., and then 480 on the Ohio to Cincinnati, the whole distance being nearly 800 miles, and the time occupied, six weeks. He lived on this farm till 1823. His wife died there in Dec., 1822, of measles, contracted from the children, while he was absent in Illinois in search of a farm for a new residence. Nearly all the family were sick at the same time, but all survived except the mother. She was buried in the burying-ground on the farm. She was an active woman, and an excellent manager. The next spring, in 1823, he removed his family to a farm near Peoria, Ill., which he had selected the previous year. He resided here till the latter part of his life, when he went to live with his daughter, Olive (Moffatt) Proctor, and her husband Abel Proctor, at Scales Mound, Ill. He died there Feb. 10, 1850, at the age of 78 years. He was an upright and very industrious man.—SEE THEIR CHILDREN: NOS. 91, 92, 93, 94, 95, 96, 97, 98, 99, 100, 101.

59. vii. ELISHA⁵ PIPER (Elisha⁴, Samuel³, Samuel², Nathaniel¹), born May 1, 1781, in Parsonsfield, Me.; a farmer; married Betsey Mighels*, born Jan. 29, 1773, in Newmarket, N. H., being older than her husband. He died of fever Oct., 1812, in Newburgh, Me., where he first settled. She died Aug. 15, 1864, in Newburgh, aged 91 years.—SEE THEIR CHILDREN: NOS. 102, 103, 104, 105, 106, 107, 108.

60. viii. JANE⁵ PIPER (Elisha⁴, Samuel³, Samuel², Nathaniel¹), born May 1, 1783, in Parsonsfield, Me.; married Jacob Bradbury, June 20, 1803, born Jan. 7, 1769, in Biddeford, Me.; a farmer. He was an active man and a good farmer. He died May 4, 1837, in Limerick, Me. She died Oct. 2, 1863, in Limerick. She was a woman a little above the medium size, of an amiable disposition, with black eyes and dark hair. He resided in Limerick, near Felch's Corner.—SEE THEIR CHILDREN: NOS. 109, 110, 111, 112, 113.

61. ix. BETSEY⁵ PIPER (Elisha⁴, Samuel³, Samuel², Nathaniel¹), born April 11, 1786, in Parsonsfield, Me.; married Isaac Felch, son of Abijah Felch, in 1805, born in Limerick, Me., May 7, 1782; a farmer, selectman, trustee of Parsonsfield Seminary, and lieutenant. After his marriage he lived in Limerick several years, but in 1816 removed to Parsonsfield on a farm near the Seminary, where he lived many years as a successful farmer. In 1836 he sold his farm, and removed to Gorham, Me., where he died June 14, 1841. His wife died Oct. 3, 1841, in Gorham. She was a woman of medium size, with blue eyes and dark hair; of active temperament and very in-

62. x. JONATHAN⁵ PIPER (Elisha⁴, Samuel³, Samuel², Nathaniel¹), born Dec. 30, 1788, in Parsonsfield, Me.; a farmer, teacher, school committee, selectman, land-surveyor, justice of the peace, county commissioner, and one of the surveyors appointed to establish the boundary line between Maine and New Hampshire. He was in public business a large portion of his time for more than twenty years. He had a good common school and academical education, and in 1801 attended Fryeburg Academy, at Fryeburg, Me., for some time, and was under the instruction of Daniel Webster, who was Principal of the institution at that time, and subsequently became so distinguished as a lawyer, orator, and statesman. In politics he was a Whig, and subsequently a Republican. He was several times a candidate for representative to the State Legislature, and had the full vote of his party; but as there were about twice as many Democrats in town as Whigs, he was not elected. No Whig was elected by the town as representative to the Legislature during his political career. He had a taste for music, could read it readily, and sung regularly in the church choir for many years. On the tenor drum he was a first-class player, and drum-major of his regiment. His open beat and full roll and his imitation of a battle scene, with the continuous and heavy roll of the drum and the discharge of musketry in volleys and irregular shots, were very fine. He married Mary Burbank, usually called Polly, March 15, 1810, daughter of Capt. Silas and Hannah (Baird) Burbank*, born in Scarborough, Me., Aug. 6, 1788. She

* Capt. Silas Burbank was born in Massachusetts, and died Sept., 1814, at his residence in Parsonsfield, Me., being in the 76th year of his age. His family consisted of five sons and four daughters: Eleazer married Anna Brackett; Silas married Sally Wedgwood; David married Miriam Dunnells; Samuel married Esther Boothby; Caleb, unmarried; Abigail married Silas Harmon; Betsey married Solomon Hodgdon; Hannah married Capt. Tristram Redman; and Mary married Jonathan Piper, as above. At the breaking out of the War of the Revolution, he raised a company of soldiers in Scarborough, Me., where he then resided, and being made captain, marched to Boston, Mass., and joined the Continental Army. His two young sons, Silas, then 17 years of age, and David 15, were the musicians, the former being the drummer, and the latter the fifer. He served through the war, participating in some of the most important battles of that great struggle. He was at one time captain of Washington's life-guard, and permitted to sit at the table with him and his higher officers. One day at dinner, when Washington began to wait was a faithful mother, of a kind and cheerful disposition, and of true Christian character; and always instilled into the minds of her children high moral and religious principles. She died suddenly of heart-disease July 14, 1873, in Parsonsfield, only three days after the death of her husband. He always resided in Parsonsfield, first on the South Road where all his children were born. The house was located on the south side of the road, opposite the residence of his father. It has been removed recently, but the place where it stood can be easily identified, being at the eastern base of the hill on which is the new cemetery. He sold his farm on the South Road, and removed to the north part of the town, near Parsonsfield Seminary, on the farm previously owned by his brother-in-law, Isaac Felch, which he purchased of him in 1836. In person he was a little below the medium size, decided in his opinions, and quick and accurate in all his business transactions. He was of high integrity, and gained the confidence and respect of those with whom he associated. He died July 11, 1873, in Parsonsfield, where he resided.—SEE THEIR CHILDREN: NOS. 121, 122, 123, 124.

(53.) Suky⁵ Piper married James Remick.

THEIR CHILDREN:

63. i. JANE⁶ REMICK (Suky⁵, Elisha⁴, Samuel³, Samuel², Nathaniel¹), born in 1789, in Parsonsfield, Me.; married Thomas Carll, Sept. 18, 1811, born in 1784, in Waterborough, Me.; a timber-dealer, lumber-manufacturer, and representative in the Maine Legislature. She died at Union Falls, in Hollis (now Dayton), where they then resided, Sept. 29, 1829, aged 40 years. He afterward married Susan Felch⁶, cousin of his first wife, and removed to Salmon Falls, Hollis, Me.

upon the table, he filled a plate, and handed it to him first. He was surprised, blushed, hesitated, but finally took it. After he had recovered his self-possession, he began to think why Washington waited upon him first. He came to the conclusion that he looked eagerly at the food on the table (it being a boiled dinner of which he was very fond, and he was also very hungry, having been on duty the previous night, and had no breakfast) and that Washington observed it, and his tender care for his soldiers, prompted him to wait upon him before his higher officers, who had their regular meals. He loved Washington as a father, and often tears would start in his eyes at the mention of his name.

Clarke, of Cornish, Me., March 29, 1809, born in 1783, in Epping, N. H.; a deacon of the Calvin Baptist Church, trustee of Colby University, and high sheriff of Penobscot County. He died Dec. 5, 1858, in Bangor, aged 75 years. She died Nov. 19, 1866, in Bangor, where they resided, aged 75 years. The following notice of her appeared in the "Zion's Advocate:" "Susan (Remick) Clarke was an estimable Christian woman, of great force of character, and of more than ordinary intelligence."*

(54.) Benjamin^S Piper married Hannah Hodgdon.

THEIR CHILDREN:

65. i. ELISHA^B PIPER (Benjamin^S, Elisha^A, Samuel^P, Samuel^P, Nathaniel^P), born Jan. 22, 1796, in Parsonsfield, Me.; a farmer and carpenter; married Sally Foster, born Aug. 21, 1812, in Parsonsfield; died there Dec. 24, 1869. He was a man of great industry, of high moral principles, and respected by all who knew him. He founded Parsonsfield Free High School with an endowment of eleven thousand and fifty-six dollars. He also gave the Methodist Church, in Newfield, Me., where he was at that time residing, a fine church bell, costing three hundred and fifty dollars, and weighing nine hundred pounds. He was reared a Freewill Baptist, and always attended that church when he lived in his native town; he was not, however, confined to any particular religious denomination in his gifts, but bestowed them wherever he thought they would do the most good. He was a constant attendant on religious services on the Sabbath, and contributed a liberal proportion for the support of the ministry. He resided the most of his life on the old homestead of his father, on the South Road in Parsonsfield. He died March 22, 1877, in Parsonsfield. They had no children.

66. ii. SALLY^B PIPER (Benjamin^S, Elisha^A, Samuel^P, Samuel^P, Nathaniel^P), born about Sept. 10, 1797, in Parsonsfield, Me.; married Isaac Moore, born March 5, 1788, in Parsonsfield; a farmer. She died July 10, 1835, in Parsonsfield, aged 37 years and 10 months. He died May 6, 1841, in Parsonsfield, where he resided.—SEE THEIR CHILDREN: NOS. 125, 126, 127, 128, 129, 130, 131, 132.

THEIR CHILDREN :

91. i. ALVAH⁶ MOFFATT (Mary⁵ Piper, Elisha⁴, Samuel³, Samuel², Nathaniel¹), born Dec. 29, 1797, in Newburgh, Me.; a farmer and school trustee; married Clarissa Eades Feb. 11, 1823, born Dec. 19, 1805, in Virginia. He owned a large farm which he cultivated carefully. It contained a coal mine which he also worked profitably. In addition to his farm, he owned a large tract of land in the vicinity of Peoria, Ill., and became one of the most wealthy and prosperous farmers in his town. He was of a generous disposition, and gave liberally to those who needed assistance. In religion he was a Methodist. He died July 20, 1884, in Limestone, Ill., where he resided. His wife died March 16, 1884, in the same town.

92. ii. JOSEPH⁶ MOFFATT (Mary⁵ Piper, Elisha⁴, Samuel³, Samuel², Nathaniel¹), born in Newburgh, Me., about 1799; a farmer and lumberman. When about ten years of age he went to live with his grandfather, Elisha⁴ Piper, of Parsonsfield, Me., and remained with him till he was about fourteen, when he went to live with his father again. He was with him when the family went on the raft from Olean, N. Y., to Cincinnati, Ohio; and also on the farm near Hamilton, Butler County, Ohio. He died in 1822, a short time before his mother, on his return from New Orleans, La., where he had been with a boat-load of lumber for sale, and had contracted a fever. He was buried at "Mount Pulaski," in Pulaski County, Ill., probably a swell of land then called by that name, on the bank of the Ohio River, perhaps where Mound City now stands.

93. iii. ———⁶ MOFFATT (Mary⁵ Piper, Elisha⁴, Samuel³, Samuel², Nathaniel¹), born about 1801, in Newburgh, Me., and died there in infancy.

94. iv. AQUILA⁶ MOFFATT (Mary⁵ Piper, Elisha⁴, Samuel³, Samuel², Nathaniel¹), born March 19, 1802, in Newburgh, Me.; a farmer and school trustee; married, 1st, Matilda Jones March 9, 1832, born in Ohio; died in 1833, near Peoria, Ill.; 2d, Mary Bogardus (maiden name Mary Fowler) Dec. 4, 1834, born Jan. 4, 1805, in Connecticut; died July 27, 1873, near Peoria. He owned a large farm which, like his brother Alvah's, contained a coal mine from which he derived a large profit. He also owned a large tract of land near Peoria. He was a Methodist, and took a deep interest in the Methodist Society where he lived, giving it a lot of land and a church which he built on it for the society's use as a place of worship. His house was large and convenient, and is said to have been almost a home for the Methodist ministers traveling in that section of the country. He died Jan. 10, 1880, on his farm near Peoria, in Peoria township, Ill., where he resided.

¶5. v. SARAH⁶ MOFFATT (Mary⁵ Piper, Elisha⁴, Samuel³, Samuel², Nathaniel¹), born Nov. 21, 1804, in Newburgh*, Me. After the death of her mother, when eighteen years of age, she left her paternal home, and went to provide for herself in Cincinnati, Ohio. After remaining there about a year she married Matthew Brown, Dec. 25, 1823, born in Keighley, Yorkshire, England, Oct. 17, 1806. He emigrated to this country with his father when only six years old, and was educated here. When twelve years of age he began to learn the trade of cabinet-maker, serving five years, and became a first-class workman. When General Lafayette visited this country, in 1824, he was selected by the reception committee of Cincinnati to make an elegant chair for him to sit in. The chair was of extraordinary workmanship, and is now carefully preserved with other interesting relics of the city. He followed the business of cabinet-making in Cincinnati about thirteen years, and then entered into trade, and by strict integrity and close attention to business, became a successful merchant. In the meantime, with much sagacity, he purchased real estate in the city, which rose largely on his hands, and he became quite wealthy. After diligent labor in trade for twenty years or more, he retired from business in 1854, retaining a portion of his real estate in the city, and purchased a country seat of ten acres at Delhi, about four and a half miles from Cincinnati, where he lived as a gentleman farmer and capitalist, with his family, to which he was much attached, in quiet leisure until his death, which occurred suddenly May 30, 1868, at Delhi. In politics he was a Republican, and took a deep interest in the success of the Union Army in the War of the Rebellion. His wife died May 24, 1886, in Cincinnati, to which she and her surviving children* removed after the death of her husband. She was an active woman, of medium size with dark hair and black eyes, of amiable disposition, and highly respected.

*She told her children that she was born in "No. 2, Massachusetts." Maine was a part of Mass. till 1820. Newburgh, before its incorporation in 1819, was called Plantation No. 2, and was then a part of Mass. She was, therefore, correct in saying that she was born in "No. 2, Massachusetts."

96. vi. MARY⁶ MOFFATT (Mary⁵ Piper, Elisha⁴, Samuel³, Samuel², Nathaniel¹), born July 21, 1806, probably in Newburgh, Me.; married Abel Proctor, Dec. 23, 1831, born March 31, 1800, in Vermont; at first a printer, but subsequently a farmer. He lived on his farm at Scales Mound, Ill., for many years until sometime after the death of his wife. He then sold and purchased a tract of land for himself and children in Wright County, Iowa. He was a man of cultivated mind and high moral character. He died in Wright County, March 12, 1888, where he was residing with his daughter. His wife died May 14, 1865, at Scales Mound. Both were buried at Scales Mound.

97. vii. OLIVE⁶ MOFFATT (Mary⁵ Piper, Elisha⁴, Samuel³, Samuel², Nathaniel¹), born Oct. 23, 1809, probably in Newburgh, Me.; married Samuel Scales, April 11, 1833, born in Rockingham County, North Carolina, April 17, 1805; a farmer, and extensive landholder. He owned a farm containing over seven hundred acres near Shullsburgh, Wisconsin, and another large tract of land, rich in lead ore, near Scales Mound, Ill., which was named in honor of him. His mining lands rose to almost fabulous prices, and he became quite wealthy. All his purchases of land resulted favorably. He died Sept. 13, 1878, near White Oak Springs, Wis. His wife died July 18, 1845, in the same place.

98. viii. ELISHA⁶ MOFFATT (Mary⁵ Piper, Elisha⁴, Samuel³, Samuel², Nathaniel¹), born about 1811, perhaps in Me.; died aged two years.

* Their children are as follows: 1. Mary Ann, born Dec. 3, 1824; died Jan. 6, 1862. 2. Catharine, born Jan. 11, 1827; died Sept. 1, 1832. 3. Jane, born March 23, 1829; died Aug. 25, 1829. 4. Joseph, born July 30, 1830; died July 10, 1832. 5. Matthew, born Nov. 16, 1832; died Feb. 16, 1836. 6. Clarissa, born Oct. 28, 1834; died Oct. 29, 1834. 7. Frances Olive, born Aug. 14, 1836; died Dec. 18, 1874. 8. Sarah Euphemia, born July 7, 1838, living in Cincinnati. 9. Harriet Corwin, born Oct. 13, 1840, living in Cincinnati. She has rendered me valuable assistance in collecting genealogies for this book. See page 9. 10. Martha Ermina, born June 2, 1844; died Aug. 17, 1853. All were born in Cincinnati except Clarissa, who was born near Peoria, Illinois.

99. ix. ELIZA⁶ MOFFATT (Mary⁵ Piper, Elisha⁴, Samuel³, Samuel², Nathaniel¹), born about 1813, perhaps in Mass.; died in childhood.

100. x. BENJAMIN FRANKLIN⁶ MOFFATT (Mary⁵ Piper, Elisha⁴, Samuel³, Samuel², Nathaniel¹). born Oct. 8, 1815, near Quebec, Canada; a farmer; married, 1st, Nancy Jane Risdon Jan., 1835, born in 1820; died Aug. 3, 1853, in Wisconsin; 2d, Mercy Wayne (maiden name Mercy Rockwell), born in 1826, in Dayton, Ohio. He was a man of fine physical development, generous, and hospitable. He owned a good farm, but was not a land-holder. He died March 17, 1886, near Peoria, Ill., where he resided. His second wife resides in Lenora, Kansas.

101. xi. ———⁶ MOFFATT (Mary⁵ Piper, Elisha⁴, Samuel³, Samuel², Nathaniel¹), born about 1817, perhaps in Olean, N. Y.; died in infancy.

She is now living (1889) at the age of eighty-six years, the fond mother of a large and respectable family of children, two of whom are college educated, and holding responsible positions in society.—SEE THEIR CHILDREN : Nos. 215, 216, 217, 218, 219, 220, 221, 222.

105. iv. ELISHA⁶ PIPER (Elisha⁵, Elisha⁴, Samuel³, Samuel², Nathaniel¹), born Feb. 10, 1805, in Newburgh, Me.; died in August, 1805, in Newburgh.

106. v. DAVID⁶ PIPER (Elisha⁵, Elisha⁴, Samuel³, Samuel², Nathaniel¹), born May 11, 1807, in Newburgh, Me.; a farmer; died of consumption Oct., 1826, in Newburgh, Me., where he lived.

107. vi. ELISHA⁶ PIPER (Elisha⁵, Elisha⁴, Samuel³, Samuel², Nathaniel¹), born April 8, 1809, in Newburgh, Me.; a farmer; married Harriet Burbank, daughter of Ensign Samuel and Esther (Boothby) Burbank, Nov. 21, 1833, born Jan. 15, 1811, in Parsonsfield, Me. She was noted for her good scholarship when a school-girl, and now for the good management of her household affairs. She takes a deep interest in passing events and the progress of society. He resided on the old homestead devised to him by his grandfather, Elisha⁴ Piper, with whom he had lived from early childhood, and whose confidence and esteem he had gained by his fidelity, industry, and integrity. He was one of the largest and best farmers in town. In the management of his farm he followed in the footsteps of his grandfather, and conducted it with equal energy and success. He was acquainted with music, played the fife, and was chorister of the church choir for eighteen years. He was a Freewill Baptist in religious belief and by profession, and so are all his family. He died of pneumonia April 11, 1876, in Parsonsfield, where he resided.—SEE THEIR CHILDREN: NOS. 223, 224, 225.

108. vii. JESSE⁶ PIPER (Elisha⁵, Elisha⁴, Samuel³, Samuel², Nathaniel¹), born March 9, 1811, in Newburgh, Me.; died May 18, 1827, on the homestead of his father, in Newburgh. On the day of his death he and another young man, by the name of Albert Nash, were planting corn, and during a thunder-shower took shelter from the rain under the body of a large tree which had been broken off by the wind and fallen nearly down, leaving a long splintery stump to which it was still attached near the bottom. While sitting under this tree both were instantly killed by lightning—"by touch etherial slain."

* This name is spelled by some More, and by others Moore. John and Eben More, brothers, the former of whom settled in Parsonsfield in 1774, and the latter, the same year, in Newfield near by, spelled their names More. The younger sons of John More changed their names to Moore, and now nearly all the descendants of John and Eben spell their names Moore. Ira More has adhered to the spelling of his grandfather, John More. It is difficult to tell which is the original spelling. Miss Hannah More, the distinguished authoress, and Sir Thomas More, Lord Chancellor of England, spelled their names More. Thomas Moore, the poet, and General Sir John Moore, the hero of Corunna, spelled theirs Moore.

COPY OF THE WILL OF NATHANIELL¹ PYPER.

(From the Ipswich Records in Essex Registry of Deeds, at Salem, Mass., Book IV, Leaf 52.)

IN THE NAME OF GOD, AMEN. I, Nathaniell Pyper*, of Ipswich, in America, being weake in body, but of good and perfect memory, blessed be God, doe dispose of that estate God hath lent me, as followeth. Imprimis: I give unto Sarah, my loveing wife, my house and house lott, barne and orchard, and all my lands at Hog Island, with all my marsh both there and elsewhere in Ipswich, and all my stock of cattle and sheepe, with all my household goods and debts, dureing her widdowhood, and untill my children come to the age of one and twenty yeares, or be marryed. And then my will is that my daughter Sarah shall have five pounds payd her by her mother soe soone as she can convenyently; also I give my son Nathaniell ten pounds at the age of one and twenty yeares, or at his day of marriage; also I give unto all my other children, Josiah, John, Thomas, Mary, Margaret, Samuell, and Jonathan, five pounds apcece, as they come to age, or marry away; also my will is that none of these legases shall be payd soe as to hinder my wife her comfortable subsistence while she lives, and also my will is that if any of my children shall depart this life before they come to age, that then there portions shall be equally devyded amongst the rest of my children that shall survive; also my will is that if my wife should marry againe that she shall have one halfe of my house and halfe of my home lott dureing her naturall life, and the use of halfe my household goods; after her decease my will is that my son Nathaniell shall have all my house and home lott; and all my land at Hog Island, with the marsh there and elsewhere, all these being prised and equally divided amongst all my children then liveing, every one of them alike, only my son Nathaniell to have dubble portion out of the same. I doe make Sarah, my loveing wife, sole executrix of this my last will and testament, dated the seaventh day of March, in the yeare of Grace sixteene hundred seaventy and five, 1675. In wittness whereof I have hereunto sett my hand and seale.

NATHANIELL PYPER. {SEAL}

These being witnesses: }
FRANCIS WAINWRIGHT, }
JAMES CHUTE, SENR. }

*This name was formerly spelled Pyper; but, as in some other English names, the y has been changed to i: as, Pyke, Pike; Smyth, Smith; Hylton, Hilton. He sometimes spelled it Piper, and his children always spelled it so, as found in documents where they signed their names.

This will was proved by the oaths of Mr. Francis Wainwright and James Chute to be the last will and testament of Nathaniell Pyper to the best of their knowledge, and they saw him signe and seale the same, and publish it to be his will in court held at Ipswich this 26 of Sept., 1676.

*I have copied this Company Roll from the one sent me by Cyrus Snell Barker, of Cornish, Me. It was written by Ebenezer Barker, Clerk of the company, one hundred and twenty-two years ago. Such a document may seem foreign to a work on genealogy, but I think it will be interesting to the descendants of Ebenezer Barker, who was the father of the Parkers who first settled in Cornish, and to those of Elisha⁴ Piper, of Parsonsfield, whose first wife, Sarah Barker, was his daughter; and three of the company, Avery, Merrill, and Pottle, probably married his sisters. It may, perhaps, be of interest also to other families whose ancestors are enrolled on it. The names are all spelled as I found them on the roll sent me, and as I suppose the soldiers wrote them when they signed the original roll.

† Ebenezer Barker was a son of Noah Barker, of Stratham, N. H., who died there Jan. 3, 1749. Noah had a family of eight CHILDREN: Ruth, Ezra, Benjamin, Nathan, Ebenezer, Ephraim, John, and Noah. Ebenezer married a daughter of Simeon Rundlet, of Stratham. She died Sept. 14, 1791, in Stratham, where they resided, aged seventy years. His father gave him a deed, the original now (1889) in the possession of Cyrus W. Barker, of Cornish, Me., of a lot of land in Stratham, containing twenty-four acres, with a dwelling-house, barn, and orchard on the same, the deed being dated March 26, 1739. Three of Ebenezer's sons and two of his daughters settled in Maine, and one son and two daughters in New Hampshire, and died in those States. He lived and died in Stratham, and four of his children besides those mentioned died there. Cyrus Snell Barker, his grandson, says: "The first Ebenezer Barker did not settle in Cornish: he only visited there." See his children who settled in Maine and New Hampshire, pages 16 and 17. Most of the facts here given, some of which were taken from the records of Stratham, were furnished me by Ezra Barker of that town, and the remainder by Cyrus Snell Barker.

APPENDIX.

GENEALOGY OF ASA¹ PIPER, OF WAKEFIELD, N. H., AND HIS IMMEDIATE DESCENDANTS.

FIRST GENERATION.

1. NATHANIEL¹ PIPER*, ancestor of Asa¹ Piper, was born in England about 1630, and emigrated to this country from Dartmouth, in Devonshire, probably as early as 1653. He settled in Ipswich, Mass.; married Sarah —; and died in 1676, in Ipswich. She probably died in Wenham, Mass.—SEE THEIR CHILDREN: Nos. 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9, 10, 11, 12.

SECOND GENERATION.

(1.) Nathaniel¹ Piper married Sarah —.

THEIR CHILDREN:

2. i. SARAH² PIPER (Nathaniel¹), born about 1656 in Ipswich, Mass.; was living in 1675, being under twenty-one years of age; died.

3. ii. NATHANIEL² PIPER (Nathaniel¹), born June 25, 1658, in Ipswich; died probably about 1689, in Ipswich.

4. iii. MARY² PIPER (Nathaniel¹), born Nov. 5, 1660, in Ipswich; died Feb. 18, 1661, in Ipswich.

5. iv. JOSIAH² PIPER (Nathaniel¹), born Dec. 18, 1661, in Ipswich; was living in 1675; died.

6. v. JOHN² PIPER (Nathaniel¹), born in 1663, in Ipswich; married Lydia —; died probably in Wenham, Mass. She died probably in Wenham.

7. vi. MARY² PIPER (Nathaniel¹) born Dec. 15, 1664, in Ipswich; was living in 1690; died.

8. vii. THOMAS² PIPER (Nathaniel¹), born Nov. 26, 1666, in Ipswich; married Grace Hawley, of Wenham, Nov. 21, 1692; died perhaps in Stratham, N. H., and his wife in the same place. It is not certainly known whether he removed to Stratham or not. Some of his connections think he did. It is certain that his sons, Thomas³ and Nathaniel³, settled there.

9. viii. MARGARET² PIPER (Nathaniel¹), born June 16, 1668, in Ipswich; married Tristram Greenleaf, Nov. 12, 1689; died. He died.

10. ix. SAMUEL² PIPER (Nathaniel¹), born June 12, 1670, in Ipswich; married Abigail Church, April 23, 1694; died Oct. 31, 1747, in Stratham, N. H. She died in Stratham.

11. x. JONATHAN² PIPER (Nathaniel¹), born in Ipswich, probably in 1672; married, 1st, Sarah Leach, of Boxford, Mass., May 7, 1695, who died May 6, 1700, in Ipswich; 2d, Alice Darby, of Beverly, Mass., published Sept. 21, 1700; certificate granted Oct. 9, 1700. He died May 11, 1752, in Concord, Mass., to which place he removed from Ipswich in 1731. She died April 23, 1758, in Concord.—SEE THEIR CHILDREN: NOS. 13. 14. 15. 16. 17. 18. 19. 20. 21.

12. xi. WILLIAM² PIPER (Nathaniel¹), born in Ipswich; died June 18, 1674, in Ipswich.

THIRD GENERATION.

(11.) Jonathan² Piper married, 1st, Sarah Leach;
2d, Alice Darby.

THEIR CHILDREN:

13. i. SAMUEL³ PIPER (Jonathan² Nathaniel¹), born in Ipswich, Mass., probably in 1700, a short time before the death of his mother Sarah; died March 7, 1718, in Wenham, Mass.

14. ii. JONATHAN³ PIPER (Jonathan², Nathaniel¹), born in Ipswich, probably about 1702; married Abigail Bachelder, of Ipswich, June 10, 1724, daughter of Joseph and Sarah Bachelder, born June 15, 1703. He removed to Concord, Mass., with his father in 1731. Both were living Oct. 9, 1772. They probably died in Concord.

15. iii. NATHANIEL³ PIPER (Jonathan², Nathaniel¹), born in Ipswich; baptized March 17, 1706, in Wenham*; married Susanna —, and settled in Concord. He died Aug. 2, 1758, in Concord. She died after his decease, probably in Concord.

* His father lived in Ipswich till 1731, but attended church in Wenham, because it was nearer than the church in Ipswich; therefore his children were baptized in Wenham.

16. iv. JOSIAH³ PIPER (Jonathan², Nathaniel¹), born in Ipswich; baptized Oct. 17, 1708, in Wenham; married Sarah ——. After his marriage he lived a short time in Concord, and then settled in Acton, Mass. Both probably died in Acton.—SEE THEIR CHILDREN: NOS. 22. 23. 24. 25. 26. 27. 28.

17. v. JOHN³ PIPER (Jonathan², Nathaniel¹), born in Ipswich; married Ruth —, of Concord, before Jan. 22, 1747. They were living in Bolton, Mass., April 26, 1758, and probably died there.

18. vi. ALICE³ PIPER (Jonathan², Nathaniel¹), born in Ipswich; married Archelaus Adams, of Newbury, Mass., in 1726; died before Feb. 15, 1749. He died.

19. vii. SARAH³ PIPER (Jonathan², Nathaniel¹), born in Ipswich; married David Pierce, of Lexington, Mass., May 9, 1734. Both were living April 26, 1758, in Harvard, Mass. They died.

20. viii. MARY³ PIPER (Jonathan², Nathaniel¹), born in Ipswich; married Joseph Gould, of Nottingham West (now Hudson), N. H., June 19, 1746; died. He died.

21. ix. JOSEPH³ PIPER (Jonathan², Nathaniel¹), born in Ipswich, in 1718; married Esther Wright, daughter of Henry Wright, of Westford, Mass., Nov. 18, 1743; died Dec. 19, 1802, in Acton, Mass., to which place he removed from Concord in 1762, aged 85 years. She died April 7, 1808, in the same place, aged 85 years.

FOURTH GENERATION.

(16.) Josiah³ Piper married Sarah —.

THEIR CHILDREN:

22. i. SARAH⁴ PIPER (Josiah³, Jonathan², Nathaniel¹), born Aug. 15, 1736, in Concord, Mass.; died.

23. ii. MARY⁴ PIPER (Josiah³, Jonathan², Nathaniel¹), born July 26, 1739, in Acton, Mass.; died.

24. iii. JOSIAH⁴ PIPER (Josiah³, Jonathan², Nathaniel¹), born March 2, 1743, in Acton; married Sarah —; died. She died. They resided in Stow, Mass.

25. iv. ABIGAIL⁴ PIPER (Josiah³, Jonathan², Nathaniel¹), born Feb. 14, 1746, in Acton; died Oct. 31, 1753, in Acton.

26. v. SAMUEL⁴ PIPER (Josiah³, Jonathan², Nathaniel¹), born Aug. 8, 1749, in Acton; married Olive Adams, of Acton, June 29, 1772; died. She died.

27. vi. ELIZABETH⁴ PIPER (Josiah³, Jonathan², Nathaniel¹), born May 8, 1752, in Acton; died.

28. vii. ASA¹ PIPER (*Josiah*³, *Jonathan*², *Nathaniel*¹), born March 7, 1757,* in Acton; a Congregational clergyman; married, 1st, Mary Cutts, born in Portsmouth, N. H., in 1766; died Jan. 4, 1802, in Wakefield, N. H.; 2d, Sarah Little, born in Kennebunk, Me., in 1765; died Oct. 15, 1827, in Wakefield. He graduated at Harvard College in 1778, studied divinity, and was ordained pastor of the Congregational Church in Wakefield, N. H., Sept. 22, 1785. He continued in that office for nearly fifty years, or until his death, having had a colleague only the last seven years of that time. He was a man of much force of character and deep piety. His judgment was sound, and his opinions on the great questions of his day, correct. He was much beloved by the members of his church and society, and by his townsmen generally. Rev. Albert H. Thompson, in his Address on the "One Hundreth Anniversary of the Organization of First Church, and Ordination of the First Settled Town Minister of Wakefield, N. H.," says of him: "He was of staunch English stock, a good scholar, and a priest of the Most High God. He was the first pastor of this church, and stands at the head of the line in time and talent." He was about six feet in height and of fine physical development. He died May 17, 1835, in Wakefield.—SEE THEIR CHILDREN: NOS. 29, 30, 31, 32, 33.

FIFTH GENERATION.

(28.) Asa¹ Piper married, 1st Mary Cutts; 2d, Sarah Little.

THEIR CHILDREN:

29. i. ELIZABETH GERRISH⁵ PIPER (*Asa*⁴, *Josiah*³, *Jonathan*², *Nathaniel*¹), born Sept., 1789, in Wakefield, N. H.; married Porter K. Wiggin, Jan. 21, 1814; died in May, 1881, in Boston, Mass., where they resided. He died.

30. ii. EDWARD CUTTS⁵ PIPER (*Asa*⁴, *Josiah*³, *Jonathan*², *Nathaniel*¹), born Dec. 30, 1791, in Wakefield; a farmer and deacon of the Congregational Church of Wakefield for nearly half a century. He entered Harvard College in Sept., 1809, one year in advance, and dissolved his connection with it at the end of his junior year, on account of ill health, which obliged him to abandon his intention of pursuing a professional life of study, and to adopt a busi-

*The time of his birth, as given by himself when he entered Harvard College, is March 17, 1757. The date March 7, given above, which is taken from the town records of Acton, Mass., is probably Old Style, and he added ten days for New Style, making it March 17, 1757.

ness which required labor in the open air. Rev. Albert H. Thompson in his Anniversary Address, makes the following quotation in regard to him: "He was the good old deacon, permitted for more than half a century to embellish, in his ancestral home, a hard-working farmer's life with the culture of a Christian gentleman. He had an apostolic beauty of character, and led a blameless life." He married Sarah Swasey (maiden name Sarah Jones), May 18, 1828, born March 18, 1790, in Portsmouth, N. H.; died Jan. 13, 1866, in Wakefield. He died Feb. 27, 1881, at his home in Wakefield.

—SEE THEIR CHILDREN: NOS. 31, 32, 36.

33. v. SARAH LITTLE⁵ PIPER (Asa⁴, Josiah³, Jonathan², Nathaniel¹), born in 1803, in Wakefield; married Lewis Dearborn, Nov. 17, 1823; died Nov. 19, 1831, at Great Falls, N. H., where they resided. He died.

SIXTH GENERATION.

(30.) Edward Cutts⁵ Piper married Sarah Swasey.

THEIR CHILDREN:

31. i. ADELINE⁶ PIPER (Edward Cutts⁵, Asa⁴, Josiah³, Jonathan², Nathaniel¹), born April 8, 1829, in Wakefield, N. H.; died Dec. 15, 1831, in Wakefield.

32. ii. EDWARD CUTTS⁶ PIPER (Edward Cutts⁵, Asa⁴, Josiah³, Jonathan², Nathaniel¹), born July 23, 1830, in Wakefield; a machinist; married Henrietta Cox, Aug. 16, 1852, born in 1830, in Searsmont, Me.; died Aug. 19, 1865. He died Nov. 22, 1862, in Wakefield. He resided in Boston, Mass.

36. iii. GEORGE FRANCIS⁶ PIPER (Edward Cutts⁵, Asa⁴, Josiah³, Jonathan², Nathaniel¹), born Sept. 6, 1833, in Wakefield; a farmer; married Mary Jenness, June 13, 1866, born Sept. 21, 1842, in Wakefield. He has rendered me valuable assistance in collecting genealogies for this book. See page 9. He resides in Wakefield, on the homestead of his grandfather, Rev. Asa⁴ Piper, which is pleasantly located near Lovewell's Pond, a beautiful sheet of water, made memorable by Capt. John Lovewell and his brave men, who killed ten hostile Indians there at one time, in 1725.—

—O—

GENEALOGICAL RECORD.

A genealogical record of the ancestors, and brothers and sisters of Rev. Asa⁴ Piper, of Wakefield, N. H., written by himself in 1833, two years before his death.

“The great-grandfather emigrated from England during the Revolution in the days of Charles the First. Which side he espoused in the controversy, whether for the King or the Commonwealth, is now unknown.* He came from Dartmouth, in the south-west of England, and settled in Ipswich, Mass. * * *. He had three or four sons. My grandfather, I believe, bore the name of Jonathan; he removed to Concord. His brothers' names were Nathaniel, Samuel, and Thomas, if I am not mistaken. Two of these went to Stratham; the other, I believe, died young. I think there was one daughter, if not more. She married a Greenleaf. My grandfather had the following children: Jonathan, Nathaniel, John, Josiah, and Joseph; and two daughters, one of whom married a Pierce; the other a Gould. Josiah, my father, settled early in Acton, Mass., and left three sons and three daughters; another daughter died at an early age. Joseph also settled in Acton, and had a large family. These spread in various directions, mostly in New Hampshire. My oldest brother was named Josiah, the other Samuel; my oldest sister Sarah, the next Mary, the youngest Elizabeth, all older than myself.”†

* He undoubtedly espoused the side of the Commonwealth. All his descendants in this country, of whom I have had any knowledge, have been strongly in favor of a Republic, and have had no sympathy with a Monarchy. He was probably one of those who, foreseeing the restoration of Charles the Second, emigrated to this country to enjoy greater liberty than could be had in England.

† The genealogy of all his father's family is given on pages 87 and 88, copied from the records of Acton, Mass.

GENEALOGY OF SOLOMON² PIPER, OF BOSTON, MASS., AND HIS IMMEDIATE DESCENDANTS.

FIRST GENERATION.

1. NATHANIEL¹ PIPER*, ancestor of Solomon⁵ Piper, was born in England about 1630, and emigrated to this country from Dartmouth, in Devonshire, probably as early as 1653.
