PART 1

YEATON FAMILY OF NEW ENGLAND

ISLES OF SHOALS

YEATON FAMILY OF NEW ENGLAND
FIRST GENERATION

1. RICHARD YEATON:

Isles of Shoals and Newcastle, N.H. Occ. fisherman. Evidence would seem to indicate that he was born prior to 1660. He was a fisherman and was on Star Island by 1683 when he witnessed a deed [NH Archives 3:177a]. He married possibly about 1685 HANNAH the daughter of ROGER DAVIS. She is named in a 12 Jan. 1693 arrest warrant on Star Is. [NH 10:231] Probably the HANNAH YEATON baptised at Gosport March 18, 1722. Richard is probably the Richard Eaton who signed a petition on Star Is. in 1702 to recover a church bell. He was taxed 10s in 1708 at Newcastle. On 18 June 1711 he bought via a quick claim deed the home and land of the deceased Roger Davis on Star Island, from John Davis the son. [NH Archives 9:151] This tends to confirm the opinion that Hannah Davis was his wife. He was sued over a £ 4 debt by John Wilson in 1718/9 court case [NH Archives 17582] He took inventory 22 Sep. 1720 of Samuel Matthews dec'd of Smuttynose Island [NH 3:82].

Either he or a son was a selectman on 22 April 1721 at Gosport and took a petition to the Governor against payment of taxes to the Province [v.9, p. 313]. He is named in 3 inventories on Star Island. He took the inv. 1 June 1721 of George Blagdon [10:220]; the inv. 6 Sep. 1721 of James Couch [10:173] and the inv. 1 Sep. 1722 of James Blagdon [1:785]. He is most likley the Richard Yeaton who was baptised Oct. 27, 1728 at Gosport. He or a son was taxed in 1728 at Newcastle. His estate was administered by his sons JOHN and SAMUEL on Aug. 10, 1732. [NH Archives 13:259] His estate was inventoried Aug. 16, 1732 and amounted to £ 393..16..9. It appears that his wife was not living, since she was not mentioned. Some indication that he was a Quaker exists. In the inventory is listed a treatise by Wm Dyer, a noted Quaker.

SECOND GENERATION

2. RICHARD YEATON Jr.:

Son of Richard [1] Star Island. Occupation fisherman. On 23 Jan. 1729 he sold 8½ acres of land at Newcastle for £5 to his brother JOHN [3][NH Archives 18:201]. He married MARGARET CRUCY, the daughter of BARNABY CRUCY Sr. and MARGARET. The 17 Feb. 1726/7 will of Barnaby Crucy of Newcastle states:

"... and to Margaret the wife of Richard Yeaton a daughter
.. to Rich^d Yeaton laid out in Rights of his wife one of the heirs of S^d Barnaby Dec^d A lott of land with the house formerly Sd Barnaby mansion houses, etc. . ."

[NH 7:592]

He may be the Capt. Richard Yeaton of the schooner "FORTUNE" mentioned in the 1756 edition of the NEW HAMPSHIRE GAZETTE. The 1752 estate of John Yeaton lists him as a creditor, £311:4:5 and £4:15:0. [NH 18:346]. He signed a petition for a lottery to build a bridge at New Castle 23 Feb. 1757 [NH Papers 9:568]. Richard and Margaret were still alive in 1758.

No known children, but they could have been the parents of several 3rd generation Yeatons whose parents are unknown. In particular HOPLEY YEATON, etc. Some sources think Richard Yeaton [34] married Margaret Crucy, but he was too young a man.

3. JOHN YEATON:

Son of Richard [1]. Newcastle, N.H. Occupation fisherman and farmer. He was born about 1687, since he paid a tax in 1708. This indicates that he was over 21 years. He married ELIZABETH the daughter of JAMES RANDELL, a carpenter at

YEATON FAMILY OF NEW ENGLAND

Newcastle. JOHN was taxed 10s in 1708 at Newcastle. He owed debts 13 May 1719 in estate of Robert Elliott of New Castle. He bought 27 Oct. 1713 from his father-in-law 1 acre as follows:

I James Randell of the Town of New Castle, carpenter . . in consideration of ye sum of four pounds four shillings to me in hand paid . . by John Yeaton of New Caslte . . fisherman . . confirm unto him ye Jno Yeaton all ye my lott of land on ye Great Island in New Castle . . on little harbour.

& furthermore I ye sd James Randell do by these p'sents for & in consideration of ye relation yt I stand into the wife Eliza: of ye aforesd Jno Yeaton . . bequeath unto her ye sd Eliza: Yeaton wife of John & to ye heirs of her body forever as acre of land where on ye aforesd Yeaton house now standeth. 27 Oct. 1713.

Wit: George Walten & Frances Walten.

He is probably the JNO YETTON taxed 1 pound in 1720 at Newcastle. The 16 June 1719 will of James Randell of New Castle calls him "my brother John Yeaton to be my execr." In 1726 he appraised the estate of Joseph Alcock of Portsmouth. [NH 3:288] He appears in the 1728 tax roll. Court Order #21560 dated 8 Aug. 1728 he was sued by Samuel Waldo of Boston. He owed £300 for food & marine supplies for 3 years. He was living in Newcastle in 1735, when he bought the Jeremiah Walford estate. He sued 4 Dec. 1735 Josiah Clark of Somersworth for £ 4:10:0 debt. [NH #11558] At the same time he recovered judgement against Richard Cole of Somersworth a £ 6 debt. [NH #11562]. He sold 22 Nov. 1736 3 acres in Somersworth for £210 to John Drew of Som. 1/3 part of 9 acres given to sd Jno Yeaton by his brother Philip Yeaton [NH 24:476]. John Yeaton N;Castle, fisherman alias husbandman for £82 sold to Richard Talpy of Star Island a house and land on star Is. being the dwelling house & land of my Hon. father Richard Yeaton decd. 8 Nov. 1756 [NH 52:125]. His will is dated 6 Nov. 1756 and was probated 26 Jan. 1757. It names his wife ELIZABETH and appoints his son RICHARD as executor. He lists all his children but FRANCIS. He indicates that son JOHN is deceased. His estate was inventoried on 20 Dec. 1758 and amounted to £ 1615:19:6.

The will of John Yeaton:

In the Name of God, Amen the eight day of November 1756, I John Yeaton of New Castle in the Province of New-Hampshire, Fisherman alias Husbandman being very sick & weak in Body ...

Jeremiah Tibbetts of Dover sold him 28 May 1714 for £ 35:15 65 acres in Somersworth [NH 9:169] Ichabod Plaisted of Salem, Mass. sold him for £ 120 a 1/8 part of a double saw mill on the lower falls of Salmon Falls in Dover on 6 April 1725. Johana, wife of Philip Yeaton of Somersworth was sued by Moses Stevens, tanner of Somersworth on 6 June 1736 for £ 5 [NH #18145] Philip Yeaton and Joane of Somersworth, husbandman sold to his brother John of New Castle, fisherman a 1/3 part of a tract of land in Dover near Salmon Falls near ye two little mills on 22 July 1730 [NH 18:200]. Love Roberts and Philip Yeaton & wife Joanna both of Somersworth sold to John Drew a grist mill at Salmon Falls on 28 Nov. 1740 [NH 47:439]. He is possibly the Philip Eaton baptised Oct. 11, 1725 at Dover. He died April 11, 1771 at Somersworth. In 1726 he deeded his entire estate to Widow Joanna (Pray) Roberts, daughter of Joseph and Mary (Grant) Pray. He probably married her, since the will of Joseph Pray of Berwick, Maine in 1748 mentions his daughter Joanna Yeaton. She may have been Philips second wife. Extracts from this deed follow:

YEATON FAMILY - ENGLAND

ENGLISH RESEARCH

The author has devoted considerable time trying to trace Richard Yeaton back to England. Regretfully no baptism record was found in English parish records. Of course we only speculate that he was born in Old England. If his name was EATON, he could have been born in New England. but no birth of any Richard Eaton circ 1660-5 has been found here.

In England the name of Yeaton is found primarily in the Counties of Salop, Stafford, Warwick and Gloucester during the period from 1500 to 1650. The name of Yeaton was written Yeton in earlier times. The author thinks that the name was originally EYTON. There were minor nobility named de EYTON, residing in Co. Salop as early as 1066. They came with William the Conqueror.

The earliest record found of anyone named YEATON was dated 1449 in Co. Devon. A John Yeton of Gloucester is named in the will of John Burford of Chuddeleghe dated 6 June 1449. It reads as follows:

Testamentum John Burford Nuper de Ayssheperton
Testa. Apud Chuddeleghe
In Dei nomine Amen vj^{to} die mensis Junii anno Domini millesimo CCCC no XLIX^{mo}

. . . Item Lego Johanni Yeton of Glauncestria
unam togam stragulatam quoniam habui de ultima libertate domini Exonien' episcopi.

Translation:

Will of John Burford late of Ayssheperton
proved at Chuddeleghe.
In the name of god amen the 6 day of June in the year 1449.

Item, appoint John Yeton of Gloucester
the covering cloak to hold till relieved by the Lord Bishop.

YEATON FAMILY OF ENGLAND

The next record found was 1490. The Dean of the Lichfield Cathedral was named YOTTON, which is probably YETTON.

For the benefit of any one who may wish to carry on my English research for Richard Yeatons origin, I have include the following records that I found.

ORIGIN OF THE NAME OF YEATON

The first Yeaton of whom we have any knowledge was RICHARD YEATON a fisherman living on the Isles of Shoals prior to 1700. No record of his immigration from England has yet been found. One theory is that he may have sailed over in his own fishing boat.

Most of the early fisherman, who came to the Isles of Shoals came from ports in Cornwall, Devon and Dorset. The name of Yeaton is rarely found in the records of these Counties. The name of Yeaton was found primarily in the West Midlands region of England. It was most common in the Counties of Shropshire and Staffordshire, during the 16th and 17th centuries. The name of Yeaton is very rare in England today.

The author has visited England frequently and while there devoted considerable time studying the origin of the name of Yeaton. While no positive proof of the origin has been found, circumstantial evidence is overwhelming. The name of Yeaton most likely originated in the County of Shropshire more than 500 years ago. As we trace the name backwards, we find that before 1600 it was usually spelled "YETON." Much earlier it was frequently written as "EYTON." Up to the 15th century, one of the families of nobility in Shropshire was named "de Eyton." Circumstances seems to indicate that this family was the origin of the name of Yeaton.

If we list all the people named Yeaton found in parish records, wills, and other early records in England prior to 1800, the result is that 1/3 of all of these people lived in the County of Shropshire. If we include the people in the counties adjacent to Shropshire, we have 2/3 of all the names. This supports my opinion that this is where the name originated.

The origin of English surnames began about the 14th century. Before that time, people had only a first name. Of all surnames, some 60 % can be traced back to a location. The start of parish records in England didn't begin until 1537. The name of yeaton can be traced back to 1539 in the northeast corner of County Shropshire. In the authors opinion, Yeaton was the name of a location. In Co. Shropshire we find the name Eaton-upon-Tern. In olden days it was called EYTON-Upon-Tern. This was the ancestral home of the deEyton family. They apparently were Normans who came with William the Conqueror in 1066. They held a Knights Fee in Stoke-upon-Tern parish. At one time Eyton-upon-Tern was called "Yeaton." Such a name is found in 1602 in the parish register of Great Boles. Later other branches of the de Eyton family lived at Eyton-upon-Weald-Moors, as well as Radulf de Eyton who was an underteneant in Baschurch parish in 1220. The name of the village of Yeaton probably comes from Radulf.

In conclusion, we can state with a high degree of certainty that the name of YEATON originated in the County of Shropshire, England. It is a misspelling of the name of EYTON. The names of EATON and ETON are thought to be other misspellings of the name of EYTON.

YEATON FAMILY OF ENGLAND

Brief History of YEATON, County Shropshshire, England

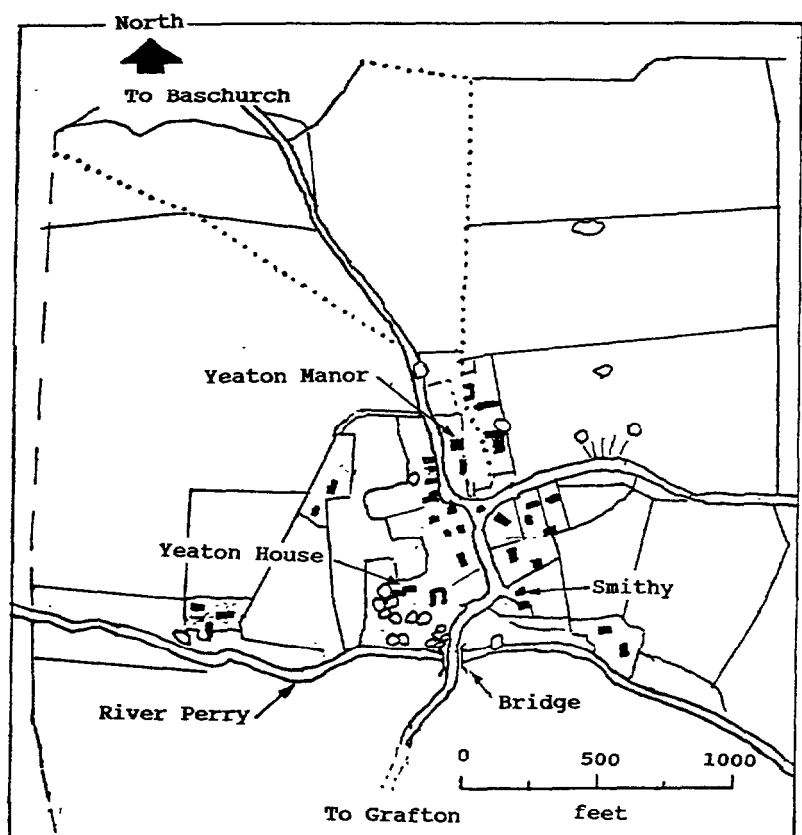

The small hamlet of Yeaton, in the parish of Baschurch, is located about 6-7 miles North Northwest of Shrewsbury the County town. Today there are about 20 dwellings in this settlement. The township of Yeaton encompasses 864 acres and is devoted to agricultural purposes. This village developed beside the bridging over point on the River Perry.

The accompanying map identifies the important features of the village, including Yeaton House. It is an 18th century red brick three storey property overlooking the bridge. An early 17th century half timbered farm house in the village center serves as the village grocery shop. Since this building is called the "Smithy", it probably served as a blacksmith shop at one time. The major farm just north of the village is labeled "Yeaton Manor". There are a number of old black and white Tudor houses in the village.

The earliest reference to Yeaton is in a 12th century list of manor Houses in Baschurch parish. In the 13th century Yeaton Township is listed as one of 14 townships in the parish of Baschurch. About that time, RADULF De EYTON was an underteneant in Baschurch. [1220-1230] Before 1600 the name of Yeaton was written as YETON. Quite likely YETON is a local misspelling of the name "EYTON." The village name is thought to have come from this family of De EYTON. The De Eyton family in County Shropshire were from Normandy, having come to England with William the Conquerer in the year 1066.

YEATTON HOUSE, Co. Hampshire, England

In southern England in County Hampshire in the parish of Hordle is a manor house called YEATTON HOUSE. Research was done by the author in 1980. The house is of white stucco and appears to be no more than 200 years old. A sign on the entrance reads:

D.J. Mitchell
Building Contrator

In the brief history pamphlet on the parish of Hordle, Yeatton House is mentioned twice. On page 2, it says: "the children of J.A. Russell of Yeatton House presented the brass lectern in memory of the father who died in 1882." On page 6 it says: "stones of Hordle's ancient church now form a rockery in the garden of Yeatton House." This most likely occurred about 1830.

Unfortunately the origin of the name was not discovered, nor how old was the manor house.

YEATON FAMILY - NEW ENGLAND

INTRODUCTION

The first Yeaton about whom we have any knowledge was Richard Yeaton, a fisherman living on the Isles of Shoals prior to 1683. No record of his immigration from England has ever been found. One theory is that he may have sailed over in his own fishing boat.

The Isles of Shoals are 10 miles from Portsmouth harbor. At the northern end of Star Island is the little village of Gosport with its tiny church. Gosport was settled in 1715. The Isles of Shoals was an all male settlement of fisherman until 1647 when a man named Reynolds battled the General Court of Mass. for the right to live with his wife. It was decided that women could stay there.

Most of the early fisherman who came from England to the Isles of Shoals came from the ports of Cornwall, Devon and Dorset. The name of Yeaton is not found in the parish records of these Counties. The name of Yeaton is found primarily in the English midlands. The name was common in the Counties of Shropshire and Staffordshire, during the 16th and 17th centuries. The name of Yeaton is found nowhere in England today.

There is a very small village in the parish of Baschurch in Shropshire which is named Yeaton. The name has been in use for more than 500 years. Surprisingly the parish records, which go back to 1600 contain no person named Yeaton. The origin of the name of the village remains a mystery. One possibility is that it was named after a Norman Knight, who lived in this area. His family name was de Eyton. The Elizabethan pronunciation of "Eyton" may have sounded the same as our pronunciation of the name of "Yeaton" today.

One possibility that must be considered is that the name may have been Eaton. In England during the 16th and 17th centuries there are a number of examples where the same person was called by both names at different times.

Therefore this first Richard Yeaton may have come from a family named Eaton. There were quite a number of Eaton families in New England by the time of his birth. He may be an unrecorded son of one of the Eaton families who lived in Salisbury, Mass.

A number of Yeaton individuals have been found who could not be connected to an earlier generation. They have been classified based on date of birth as follows: 1st generation ca. 1670, 2nd 1685-1700, 3rd 1710-1740, 4th 1740-1770, 5th 1770-1800, and 6th 1800-1830.

This booklet is dedicated to my Grandfather Alfred Daniel Yeaton (1874-1956) of Epsom, N.H. and to his daughter Gladys Evelyn Yeaton, my Mother. (1901-1991)
